

Kreshka, Olga

Takes Alabama Girl As Bride

The Rev. and Mrs. T. C. Brown, 930 Itaska Street, announce the wedding of their son, Lt. Nevin E. Brown, and Miss Mavis E. Mote, of Anniston, Ala.

The wedding took place on Sept. 21, in the Army chapel at Fort McClellan. The ceremony was solemnized by an Army chaplain.

Following the ceremony Lt. Brown and bride came North to spend a day with his parents, after which they left on their trip to the Pacific Coast, where Lt. Brown is stationed at Fort Ord. They are living at Monterey.

Mrs. Brown at the time of her marriage was secretary to an Army major at Fort McClellan.

A letter received by Rev. and Mrs. Brown this morning informed them that they arrived safely at Monterey last Sunday.

Lt. Brown is a graduate of Liberty High School and Moravian College. At the time of his entering the service he was an instructor at the Moravian Preparatory School.

He entered the service before the middle of 1943, being sent to Camp Croft, N. C., and attached to the infantry for his basic training. From Camp Croft he was sent to an Officers' Training School from which he was graduated March 3, 1944, and commissioned a second lieutenant. He was next transferred to Fort McClellan, Ala. A short time before the wedding took place, Lt. Brown received orders of his transfer to Fort Ord, where he is now stationed. He is one of five sons of Rev. and Mrs. Brown.

Army Nurse Tells Experiences in Talk To College Women

Lieut. Olga Kreshka, U. S. Army nurse, related her experiences and impressions of almost two years' service in England and France to students at Moravian Seminary and College for Women at 11:30 a. m., today, in a joint convocation in the chapel.

Lieut. Kreshka was a special student at Moravian College in 1940 and went overseas in March, 1944. She stressed that in addition to hard work the nurses found abundant hospitality and recreational facilities in Europe. June Urffer, of Allentown, introduced the speaker.

AMVETS Auxiliary Plans Fall Activities

A meeting of the Auxiliary