

Zavec, William F.

CORP. W. F. ZAVECZ

Marine Corporal William F. Zavec, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Markacs, 941 East Fifth Street, Bethlehem, is in a U. S. Naval Hospital, Oakland, Cal., where he is convalescing from a wound received in the battle for Peleliu. NOV 27 1944

Cpl. Zavec enlisted in the Marine Corps January 21, 1942, received his training at San Diego, Cal., and was sent overseas in October, 1942. Since leaving the States, the young Marine has seen action in numerous battles in the South Pacific, including the landings at Guadalcanal.

He attended St. Joseph's Parochial School and Technical High School. Prior to enlisting, he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. A brother, Charles Zavec, is receiving his boot training at Sampson, N. Y.

Nov. 27, 1944