Lieut. Moses Takes Bride At Norristown

1944

Miss Doris Marie Younker, daughter of Mrs. William Parker Younker and the late Mr. Younker, of Norristown, and Lieut. (j. g.) James Nicholson Moses, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moses, of 634 Hamilton Avenue, this city, were married Friday at 4 p. m., in All Saints' Episcopal Church, Norristown. The Rev. Herbert L. Hannah officiated.

Given in marriage by Louis L. Kumpf, of Mt. Holly, N. J., the bride wore a dress and hat of heaven blue and a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Warren Kresge, of Bethlehem, was her matron of honor and wore a dress of citrus yellow, an orchid hat and a corsage of orchids.

Ensign Jack Greenland, of Long Island, N. Y., was the bridegroom's best man.

Miss E. Anita Collins, of Norwood, Pa., organist, played the traditional wedding music.

A reception followed in the Valley Forge Hotel, Norristown, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to New York City. Their home address will be 543 George Street, Norristown.

The bride is a graduate of Norristown High School and West Chester State Teachers' College and took graduate work at Pennsylvania State College. She is an elementary teacher in the Norristown schools.

Lieut. Moses is a graduate of Liberty High School, Moravian College for Men and Lehigh University. At the time of his enlistment in the Naval Reserve he was associated with the Devoe-Reynolds Company at Louisville, Ky. He is a nephew of the Rt. Rev. W. Vivian Moses, bishop of the Moravian Church.
