W. J. Hauze, 1438 Hottle Ave., received word of the recent promotion of his son and daughter, Donald E. and Dolores D. Hauze.

Donald, now a Sergeant, is serving as a postal clerk in Furth, Germany. While furloughing in Switzerland over the week-end, he telephoned his parents from Larcona. He was inducted into the army September 15, 1944 at New Cumberland and received his basic training at Camp Blanding, Fla. After completing a brief furlough, he returned to Fort Meade, Md., from where he embarked for overseas. A graduate of Liberty High School, class of '44, Sgt. Hauze expects to be home this Summer.

Dolores D. Hauze was promoted to Hospital Apprentice 1/c at the U. S. Naval Hospital in Portsmouth, Va. She received her indoctrination at Hunter College and was sent to the U. S. Naval Medical Center at Bethesda, Md., where she received her hospital corps training. HA1/C Hauze is a graduate of Bethlehem High School, class of '42, and was employed by Western Union as a teletype operator before she enlisted. Dolores expects to join her brother in becoming a civilian again this Summer. Two brothers who served in the Army Air Forces, Richard C. and William J. Hauze Jr., were recently discharged.
