Action Plan, and Bethlehem's Environmental Advisory Council

The next meeting of the Bethlehem EAC will take place via webex on Thurs. June 4th at 7:00 pm. The EAC is one of Bethlehem's model citizen committees. One of the key things on the agenda no doubt will be the upcoming public discussion of the Climate Action Plan (see the next Gadfly post for details on registering for that meeting). If you would like to participate in the EAC meeting, contact chair Lynn Rothman for instructions at Lynn@therothmans.info.
