Brothers Meet In South Pacific

Two brothers serving with the Navy units have met in an undisclosed port in the South Pacific, it was revealed in a letter received by their parents recently.

The sailors are S1/C Michael Yamnicky, S1/C Joseph Yamnicky, Jr., sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yamnicky Sr., 1243 Second Avenue, Hellertown.

This was their first reunion in 18 months. Joseph Yamnicky has been in the service for two years, of which nineteen months have been spent overseas. He is serving aboard a destroyer escort. Michael Yamnicky has been in the service 14 months of which nine months have been spent overseas. Michael is serving aboard a cruiser. Michael had been in Africa and Egypt before going out to the Pacific. Also a relative was seen by the brothers out there.
