

Kreshka, Ensign
George

Honor Graduate

APR 4 1945

Ensign George Kreshka was cited today as Honor Graduate in a class at the Navy's renowned school primary flight instructors at New Orleans, La. During formal ceremonies this week, Ensign Kreshka was awarded a certificate as a qualified flight instructor. Making the award was Commander Charles T. Fitzgerald, USN, commanding officer, who said, "Ensign Kreshka was an exemplary student while training here. He displayed outstanding ability in airmanship and instructional technique. We are confident that he will go far in training and producing our future bomber and fighter pilots." Kreshka is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kreshka 710 Lynn Avenue. He received his formal education at Lehigh University where he won letters in all major sports. He was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company before entering the service. He has been assigned to train aviation cadets at the Naval Air Station in Dallas, Tex.
