

Shimoskic, Joseph

Dies in Action

A Memorial Mass will be celebrated in the Sacred Heart Church, Bath, July 4, at 8 a. m., for Pfc. Joseph Shimoskic, Bath, who was killed in action April 12, 1945, somewhere in Germany, a year and a day after he entered the service. He was trained at New Cumberland, Camp Stewart, Ga., and Fort Jackson, S. C.

He is survived by his wife, Mary, nee Loder, and a son, Joseph Jr.; by a sister, Mrs. Andy Pastva, Hyde Park, Pa., and three brothers, Stephen, Bethlehem; Andy, Nazareth, and Michael, Bath.

He formerly worked at the Keystone Portland Cement plant, Bath.
