

Loncaric, Stephen

RETURNS TO DUTY

Pfc. Stephen Loncaric, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blaz Loncaric, Bethlehem, R. D. 4, recently returned to Camp Adair, Ore., where he is stationed with the Army. He had spent a 15-day furlough with his family and his wife, the former Theresa Nagy, at the local address.

Pfc. Loncaric was promoted to private, first class, some time in December. He entered the service as an inductee two years ago April 23. He was sent to Fort Myer, Va., after his induction. He had been stationed at Arlington, Va., Florida and Utah before being transferred to the Oregon camp.

He was graduated from Hellertown Junior High School in 1924. He had been employed since graduation as a laborer in the local Bethlehem Steel Company plant.
