

King Jr., Charles

Farewell Party Held in Honor of Charles King, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mutter, 212 East North st., entertained at a farewell party for their nephew, Charles King, Jr., of 1937 Brookside Drive, at their home on Saturday evening. The home was decorated in the patriotic motif of red, white and blue.

Mr. King has enlisted in the U. S. Marines and will leave on Thursday morning for training at Parris Island. He is former Liberty High School soccer player and also played baseball for the American Legion and basketball with Nick's basketball team. He was a student at Bethlehem Technical High School when he enlisted.

Music for the party was played by Miss Betty Parry, of Leighton, on the piano accordion. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Mutter and Mrs. King, Sr. Many gifts, useful in the service, were presented to the young Marine.

The guests included Miss Parry, of Leighton; Doris Groff, Marie Lucente, Lillian and Betty Shaffer, Lucille McCorkell, Robert Zellner, Theodore McCorkell, Charles Garcia, Louis Molnar, Joseph Connell, Paul Bachman, Gene Fraley, Harrison, Robert and Charles King, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mutter, Forrest and Judith Mutter and Mr. and Mrs. Charles King, Sr.
