To The Friends of Musikfest:

On behalf of the citizens of Bethlehem, I would like to welcome each of you to our beautiful city for the most anticipated event in the area, Musikfest.

Musikfest sets an example for the special events industry locally and across the United States, by being a leader in its field.

The host of Musikfest volunteers, and its small hard-working staff, the Board of Directors and the business and residential community, deserve high praise for all of their efforts in presenting such a successful event.

Join me in taking in all that Bethlehem has to offer with its history and ambience, complemented by Musikfest and the variety of programmed musical events, a smorgasbord of ethnic and American foods, an array of children's activities, the serenity of artists painting murals on Main Street and a visual display of beautifully arranged flowers.

Congratulations to Musikfest for a successful seventh year. Welcome to all!

Sincerely,

KENNETH R. SMITH
Mayor

The Cover: The Musikfest '90 poster reflects a classical interpretation of the international festival. Three classical musicians harmonize in a cobblestone courtyard, with the Moravian star and the Central Moravian Church steeple visible in the background. Engraved into one of the three surrounding stone archways is the trademark Musikfest lyre. The full-color poster is adapted from an original oil painting by Mike Shively of Musselman Advertising, Inc. Official Design Sponsor of Musikfest since its inception in 1984, Musselman Advertising, Inc. is responsible for the creative image development of the festival each year. Program Book printed by Holben Graphics.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

The Bethlehem Musikfest Association provides beer, wine and coolers as an accommodation to our patrons. Miller Beer, White Mountain Cooler and the Blossom Hill Wine collection are sold at Americaplatz, Festplatz, Liederplatz, and Volkspatz. Please enjoy your drinks at these sites and do not bring your own beverages to the festival. Since Musikfest is a non-profit corporation, the proceeds from food and beverage sales defray the cost of presenting music at the festival.

We ask that you do not carry alcoholic beverages outside the entertainment areas where these beverages are served. State law prohibits removal of alcoholic beverages from these areas, and you may be stopped.

We remind our guests that the legal drinking age in Pennsylvania is 21. Musikfest staff may request identification with photo from anyone purchasing alcoholic beverages. No minors will be served. We will withhold service from anyone lacking proof of age. Each person can purchase a limit of four mugs of beer or wine. The Bethlehem City Police may also check IDs and will deal with those who behave irresponsibly.

DRINKING AND DRIVING DON'T MIX! We want you to arrive home safely so that you can return to enjoy next year's festival. If you or a friend who is driving has had too much to drink, locate the nearest information booth, and a cab will be called for you at your expense.

ARTISTS

Artists paint murals during the festival at Muralplatz, located at Main Street and Ohio Road, just south of Hotel Bethlehem. Ample room is available for you to sit, or stand and enjoy their creations. Refer to page 50 for information about Muralplatz and to page 106 for biographical information.

BANKS

Branches of several of our sponsor banks on or near the Festival Site are:

- Bell Savings Bank at Sixth Avenue and Broad Street.
- First Valley Bank at One Bethlehem Plaza near Familienplatz.
- Greater Bethlehem Savings and Loan at 418 West Broad Street near Third Avenue.
- Keystone Savings Association at Ninth Avenue and West Broad Street.
- Lehigh Valley Bank at 52 West Broad Street near Kinderplatz.
- Meridian Bank at 45 West Broad Street inside the Bethlehem Plaza Mall.
- Nazareth National Bank and Trust at 44 East Broad Street in the Broad Street Business Center.
- Valley Federal Savings and Loan Association at Club Avenue and Easton Avenue.

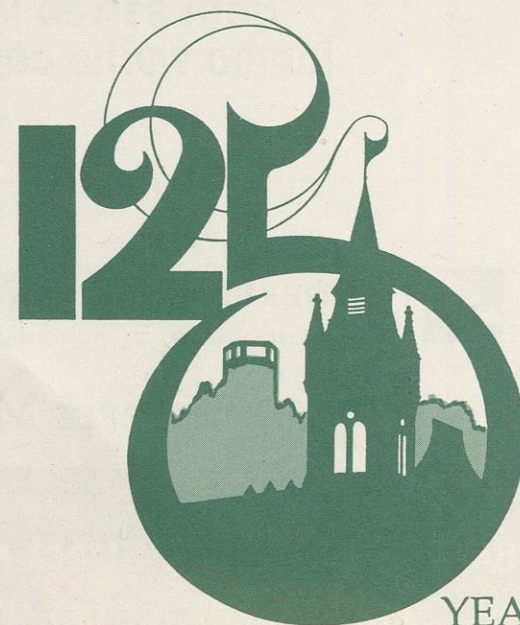

AUTOMATED TELLER MACHINES that incorporate the M.A.C. system are located at the following bank branches:

- First Valley Bank (member Plus System)
- Meridian Bank branch at Tenth Avenue and Broad Street (member Plus System)
- Nazareth National Bank and Trust (member Cirrus System)

BUSES

SHUTTLE BUSES connect the remote parking lots to the Festival Site and are color coded yellow, blue and green, to match the corresponding shuttle bus stop. The round-trip Shuttle Bus Ticket costs $2.50 for adults and $1.00 for children under 12 years. Tickets may only be purchased at the parking lot. Patrons must give their ticket to the driver

LEHIGH UNIVERSITY

Once again, Rouse & Associates is pleased to co-sponsor the Asa Packer Series, featuring the Allentown Symphony Pops Orchestra. A festival sponsor since 1984, we give Musikfest a standing ovation for orchestrating an outstanding, summertime tradition.

on the return trip to the parking lot. For information about the remote parking sites, which are called Shuttleplatz, see "Parking."

SHUTTLE BUS STOPS are located on Conestoga Street, between Spring and Lehigh Streets, as indicated by the symbol in the "Festival Map" in the center of this book. When taking a Shuttle back to your parking lot, check your Shuttle Bus Ticket and board the appropriately color coded Shuttle.

TROLLEYS supply transportation around the Festival Site. Stops are conveniently located near all of the performance sites and museums. Trolleys continuously travel around the Festival Site, but stop only at the locations designated by signs. See "Festival Map" in the center of this book to locate the nearest Trolley Stop. Trolley transportation is free. This service is made possible by support from ADIA Personnel Services, ALPO Petfoods, Inc., Kraft Foods, Inc., Weichert Realtors and Valley Federal Savings and Loan.

TOUR BUSES visiting Musikfest unload and pick up passengers at the D. Patrick M. Robinson Center, located inside Lehigh Valley Bank, on Guetter Street between Broad and North Streets.

CONCERTS

Most of the concert performances at Musikfest are free, but a few require tickets and/or admission. They include:

- Asa Packer Concert Series at Packer Church, Lehigh University — $5.00 — Saturday, August 18; Sunday, August 19; Friday, August 24; and $7.00 — Saturday, August 25.
- Chamber Music Series at Peter Hall, Moravian College Center for Music and Art, entrance on Main and Church Streets — free, but ticketed — Monday, August 20 to Friday, August 24.
- Candlelight Concert Series in Foy Concert Hall, Moravian College Center for Music and Art, south on Main Street — $5.00 — Saturday, August 18 to Saturday, August 25.
- Kunstplatz Concerts at the Community Arts Pavilion — free, but some reserved seating at $3.00 — Saturday, August 18 to Sunday, August 26.
- Vesper Concert Series at Central Moravian Church, Main and Church Streets — free, no tickets required — Monday, August 20 to Friday, August 24.

Beginning July 2, tickets for the Asa Packer, Chamber and Candlelight concerts will be on sale from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., at the ground floor information desk of Bethlehem's City Hall, on Church Street. They are also available by mail order from the Musikfest office, 556 Main Street, Bethlehem, PA 18018. Mail orders received after Friday, August 11, may be held at the Concert Box Office.

Once the festival begins, all remaining tickets may be purchased at the Musikfest office. Starting one hour before each concert, tickets can be purchased from the Concert Box Office.

During August 1 to 8, tickets for all Kunstplatz concerts will be available exclusively at Leh's Department Store in Bethlehem (215) 866-4422. Beginning August 18, all remaining Kunstplatz tickets will be sold from the Kinderplatz "Welcome Booth," starting at noon. Tickets for each performance will be sold on the day of the concert only. Whether tickets are purchased at Leh's or the festival, a limit of 6 tickets will be sold per person. Mail orders will not be accepted for Kunstplatz tickets. For further ticket information see "Tickets" in this section. See the "SITES OF MUSIKFEST" on page 47 for site locations and descriptions, and the "DAILY SCHEDULE" on page 24 for starting times.

COOLERS

Leave your cooler at home. To maximize safety for Musikfest visitors, the festival prohibits all external cans, bottles and coolers. Under no circumstances will coolers be permitted at Kunstplatz or at any other festival site at any time.

EMERGENCY SERVICE

In the event of any emergency, contact the nearest Musikfest Site Supervisor, the nearest police officer or locate a Musikfest information booth. The emergency number to call is (215) 865-7171.

FESTIVAL RULES

Few rules exist at Musikfest, but the ones we have are there for a good reason — to ensure a safe and enjoyable festival for all attending. Please follow them!

- Help us keep the festival sites clean by using the garbage cans and ashtrays.
- Do not carry alcoholic beverages outside of the entertainment areas where these beverages are served. It is against state laws to do so, and you may be stopped.
- Bringing food or beverage to any Musikfest site is prohibited.
- For the safety of our patrons, glass containers and coolers are prohibited at all Musikfest sites.
- Do not bring animals to the festival, except guide dogs.
- Only Musikfest personnel are permitted on scaffold towers and stages.
- Parking in no parking zones will result in towing, ticketing or fines. Please use the convenient off-site parking areas (Shuttleplatz) and Shuttle Buses.
- For your safety, do not swim or wade in the creek, canal or river.
- Skateboards and portable radios are prohibited.
- Defacing property within the Musikfest site may result in prosecution.
- To encourage responsible service and consumption of alcoholic beverages, no Musikfest pitchers will be sold or filled.
- DO NOT DRINK AND DRIVE. Musikfest observes the state regulations established by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board. Musikfest volunteers will not serve patrons unless proper ID is presented.

FIRST AID

Four First Aid stations called "Healthplatz" and an area at Kinderplatz for mothers to change baby diapers are sponsored and staffed by Muhlenberg Hospital Center and St. Luke's Hospital.

- At Festplatz, Healthplatz is located on the grass between the bridge and Spring Street. It is staffed during festival hours by a physician and a nurse. Personnel from the City of Bethlehem Emergency Medical Service is also standing by.
- At Familienplatz, Healthplatz is located in the middle of the Broad Street Pedestrian Mall.
- At Americaplatz, Healthplatz is on the portico of the Bethlehem Area Public Library, facing Church Street.
- At Volksplatz, Healthplatz is located adjacent to the information ticket booth, off of the gravel access road, toward the Broad Street Bridge Arch.
- At Kinderplatz, mothers will have a private area to nurse and change babies' diapers. Supplies for changing diapers will be available. Minor first aid will be provided.

Free blood pressure testing is available at all four Healthplatz locations. First aid service at the festival site is free. If additional treatment is needed, the ambulance and/or hospital may charge for services.

FOOD AND DRINK

About 60 authorized Musikfest food vendors offer a smorgasbord of food to sample and satisfy every taste. Vendors are located at each "platz" throughout the Festival Site. Authorized Musikfest food and beverage stands are identified by a Musikfest Lyre Logo and accept Musikfest food and beverage tickets only. These vendors contribute a significant portion of their proceeds to help present the free music at the festival. We strongly encourage your patronage. Coca-Cola products and Snyder's of Hanover snacks are available at outdoor sites. For a listing of beer and wine locations please refer in this section to "Alcoholic Beverages." For more information on the wonderful variety of food served at Musikfest, see "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43. Please do not bring your own food or beverage to the festival.

HANDICAPPED ACCESS

Public parking with relatively easy access for the handicapped is available in the Walnut Street Parking Garage, which is located within the festival site. Reserved off-site festival parking is available only at the Lehigh Shopping Center. A free shuttle bus, provided by Good Shepherd, will transport individuals in wheelchairs to the Festival Site. For more information see "Parking." No reserved parking is available at any of the Musikfest sites for handicapped individuals and their vehicles.

All Musikfest sites are wheelchair accessible. Points of entry are:

- Americaplatz - Church Street at New Street.
- Familienplatz - Broad Street Mall at New or Guetter Streets.
- Festplatz - Spring and Main Streets.
- Kinderplatz - Spring and Main Streets.
- Kunstplatz - Moravian College Church Street Campus parking lot. Note that this is a private parking lot, and the general public may not park in it.
- Liederplatz - Walnut Street entrance, and Main Street entrance at the Sun Inn.
- Main Street - Broad and Main Streets.
- Volksplatz - From Festplatz over the Stone Arch Bridge or from Union Boulevard onto Old York Road.

Few architectural barriers exist throughout the Musikfest site, but there is a steep hill going down Main Street from the corner of Church Street to Festplatz and Kunstplatz. Volksplatz, Kinderplatz and Kunstplatz are located on grassy areas.

Free public restrooms which are handicapped equipped can be found at the following locations: in the Bethlehem Public Library (11 W. Church Street, 2nd floor, 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday to Friday, closed weekends); in City Hall (10 E. Church Street, 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday to Friday); and in the Walnut Street Parking Garage. At Americaplatz, Familienplatz, Festplatz, Kunstplatz and Volksplatz, portolets have been provided to accommodate the needs of the handicapped.

For shuttle bus information that is wheelchair accessible, see "Buses" in this section.

INFORMATION

Festival information booths are located at Americaplatz, Familienplatz, Festplatz, Kunstplatz, Liederplatz, Main Street Musikfest, Volksplatz, and the Welcome Booth on Spring Street. Most information booths sell Musikfest souvenirs, food and beverage tickets, and Souvenir Program Books. Information booth staff can help festival visitors, answer questions and provide information about the festival, Bethlehem and the Lehigh Valley. If you have a question, ask.

LICENSEES

Area merchants participating with the Bethlehem Musikfest Association under a licensing agreement will carry an additional line of Musikfest souvenirs. These licensees are identified by their display of a window decal consisting of the Musikfest script and the Lyre Logo. Sales from licensed merchandise benefit Musikfest. A detailed description of the licensees and their items follow:

- The Bethlehem Doll & Toy Shoppe, 548 Main Street, will sell an official 1990 Musikfest doll. She is a special, limited edition Goetz doll, hand painted, and made of fine quality porcelain. She is an original reproduction of an 1880 design, of which only 170 pieces were produced. She has a certificate of authenticity signed by Mr. Goetz. Also for sale is a 1990 cloisonne' pin.
- C. Leslie Smith Stores of Bethlehem and Allentown will sell a variety of silver and 14k gold jewelry, a limited edition art tile handcrafted by Starbuck & Goldner, windsocks and ceramic coffee mugs.

- The Framin' Place & Gallery, 1009 Union Boulevard, Allentown, and the Bethlehem Musikfest Association have an exclusive agreement by which patrons can purchase and order framed Musikfest '90 Posters and Souvenir Program Book covers. Also available are framed items from previous festivals.

- The official Musikfest postcards, produced by Christmas City Cards of Bethlehem, are available again this year. New festival views have been added to the selection. The cards can be mailed and canceled with the special Musikfest commemorative postmark which can be obtained from the Post Office Booth at Spring Street. They are available at the Booth and at a variety of downtown Bethlehem shops.

- The Bag Lady of Bethlehem, 544 Main Street, will sell handmade compact mirrors with leaded glass trim; a leather belt pouch with a burned-in Musikfest logo; and hand painted silk and silk twill scarves.

- Into the Lost and Found, 444 Main Street, Bethlehem, will sell an official Musikfest Christmas ornament. The glass ornament will be imprinted with the Musikfest Lyre Logo and the year. Each ornament is individually boxed.

- Orr's Department Store, Broad and Main Streets, Bethlehem, will sell golf shirts and other wearables.

- Quaker Bilt Balloons will sell hot-air balloon wall hangings in a variety of sizes and colors. They are available by mail order only at the Musikfest Souvenir Store, inside of Orr's Department Store.

LOGO

Look for the official Musikfest Lyre Logo! This indicates locations where Musikfest food and beverage tickets are accepted, and identifies our official licensees. Vendors displaying this sign are authorized by Musikfest and contribute proceeds to assist the festival. We strongly encourage your patronage.

LOST AND FOUND

Found items should be taken to the nearest information booth. Wallets, keys, and other valuables may be claimed from the Musikfest Office at 556 Main Street. Musikfest cannot be responsible for lost items. Items will only be held for 30 days after the close of the festival.

LOST PEOPLE / CHILDREN

If you become separated from your companions while visiting Musikfest, we suggest that you go to the nearest information booth to meet your party. We cannot make announcements from the stage except in emergency situations.

LOST CHILDREN should be taken to the nearest information booth. Their names and descriptions will be taken and the information circulated throughout the festival. The children will stay at the information booth until their parents can be found.

MAPS AND "MARTIANS"

If you are new to Bethlehem and are trying to locate your position on the Musikfest site, we refer you to the "Festival Site" map in the center of this book. The map shows locations of the Musikfest sites, telephones, parking, information, tickets and souvenirs, Shuttle Bus and Trolley stops, the Souvenir Store, museums and galleries on the Festival Site, first aid, and "portoplatz."

"Martians" are our term for the nine-foot yellow directional signs you will see around the festival site. These signs will identify your current location and direct you to other sites at Musikfest.

MUSEUMS

See "MUSEUMS AND GALLERIES" Section on page 109.

MUSIKFEST FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC TOURS

If you're looking for information about organized Musikfest trips, visit the volunteers in the Tour Booth at Volksplatz.

PARKING (SHUTTLEPLATZ)

Musikfest visitors driving to the festival have a number of parking lots from which to choose. Patrons using Route 22 or Route 309 should follow the signs to the appropriate Musikfest parking lot from Route 378. Patrons arriving from

THE

NAZARETH, PENNSYLVANIA 18064

Guitar Makers Since 1833

Visit Martin's 1833 Shop (for Martin memorabilia and accessories), and Woodworker's Dream (for acoustic/electric guitar kits and parts). For your 1833/Woodworker's Dream catalog please send $2.00 ($3.00 rush orders) to:

1833 Shop/Woodworker's Dream
P.O. Box 329
Nazareth, Pennsylvania 18064

Interstate 78 should follow signs to Musikfest parking from the Hellertown exit. Avoid the heavy traffic congestion in downtown Bethlehem during Musikfest! We strongly urge visitors to use one of the three off-site parking lots which are color coded and called Shuttleplatz:

1. The Lehigh Shopping Center Lot, at Union Boulevard and Club Avenue in West Bethlehem. A Good Shepherd wheelchair accessible bus will pick up and drop off handicapped visitors, for free, at this lot only. (YELLOW)
2. The Minsi Trail Bridge Lot, at the corner of Stefko Boulevard and East Market Street. (BLUE)
3. Martin Tower, at Eighth and Eaton Avenues, off of Route 378. (GREEN)

Parking at these Musikfest lots is free. A shuttle bus will operate to transport patrons to and from the festival site. Round-trip ticket prices are $2.50 for adults and $1.00 for children under 12. There is no charge for the handicapped bus service. Tickets are available for purchase ONLY at the parking lot areas. Patrons must give their ticket to the driver on the return trip to the parking lot. Limited parking is available at City of Bethlehem lots for a nominal charge. For additional information call the City of Bethlehem Parking Authority at 215/865-7035.

PITCHERS

In an effort to promote responsible service and consumption of alcoholic beverages, no pitchers will be sold or filled at Musikfest '90. A clear 22-ounce souvenir plastic mug, incorporating the festival design, will be available for visitors who desire larger quantities of beverage. Each person can purchase up to a limit of four cups of beer or wine.

POLICE

Bethlehem Police will assist festival patrons and will patrol during Musikfest to deal with emergencies. In an emergency, locate the nearest uniformed officer. Bethlehem police can be reached at the emergency number 215/865-7171.

POST OFFICE BOOTH

As in the past, a temporary facility of the United States Post Office will be at the entrance of Festplatz to provide postal service to the festival patron and volunteers. Services offered include the sale of postage stamps, stamp collecting kits, Musikfest licensed postcards and Christmas City cachet envelopes. All mail will be stamped with the special Musikfest commemorative postmark. The post office will open for service daily from 1:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

RAIN

Musikfest performances continue rain or shine, but not during electrical storms. Performing schedules may be adjusted in the event of rain.

REST ROOMS

Portable toilets (Portoplatz) are located at or near all outdoor festival sites. Free public restrooms can also be found at the following locations: in the Bethlehem Public Library (11 W. Church Street, 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday to Friday, closed weekends); and in City Hall (10 E. Church Street, Monday to Friday 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.).

For information about handicapped restrooms see "Handicapped Access."

SOUVENIRS

Musikfest '90 stoneware and plastic mugs, sweatshirts, baseball caps, tote bags, posters, Souvenir Program Books, rain ponchos, children's sun glasses, and adult and children's T-shirts are available at all souvenir booths and our Souvenir Store located within the Festival Site.

Special, limited edition steins made in West Germany, are available at the Musikfest office, 556 Main Street.

SOUVENIR STORE

A Souvenir Store which will sell Musikfest '90 items and festival memorabilia will be located within Orr's Department Store on Broad and Main Streets. The Musikfest store will open during Orr's hours which are Monday through Saturday, 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, 12:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

TELEPHONES

Outdoor public telephones are located at: 53 E. Broad Street east of New Street; 525 N. New Street; and on Spring

Street near Festplatz. Indoor telephones are at the Bethlehem Public Library (11 W. Church Street, 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Monday to Friday, closed weekends); City Hall (10 E. Church Street, Monday to Friday 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.); the lobby of the Hotel Bethlehem (437 Main Street); the Marketplace near Familienplatz; in the Luckenbach Mill near Volksplatz; and the lobby of Foy Concert Hall in the Moravian College Center for Music and Art.

Local Calls — Cellular One of the Lehigh Valley will offer visitors a free call to locations within the Lehigh Valley. This offer is limited to one call per person. The bank of Cellular One mobile phones will be located at Familienplatz on the Broad Street Pedestrian Mall, at Kinderplatz and on Main Street.

TICKETS

FOOD AND BEVERAGE TICKETS: Musikfest food and beverage tickets can be purchased at any information booth and used at any authorized Musikfest food or beverage stand. These tickets will not be refunded. Musikfest food and beverage stands accept tickets only—they do not accept cash. Look for the Musikfest Lyre Logo identifying authorized Musikfest food vendors. Their proceeds help support the festival.

CONCERT TICKETS: See "Concerts" in this section.

KUNSTPLATZ RESERVED SEATING TICKETS: Admission to all Kunstplatz concerts is free. A limited reserved seating area is on the southeast side of Kunstplatz. Admission to this seating area is $3.00, by ticket only. See "Concerts" for specific information.

SHUTTLE BUS TICKETS: See "Buses" in this section.

TROLLEYS

See "Buses" in this section.

VOLUNTEERS

Musikfest is comprised of nearly 1,700 volunteers who offer their services to Musikfest so that you can enjoy the festival. If you have any questions, want directions, or need help, ask a volunteer. They are identified by coral or mint green shirts, imprinted with the Musikfest logo. They are there to help.

WELCOME BOOTH

The Welcome Booth is a special information booth located on Spring Street in front of Kinderplatz, near the Shuttle Bus Stop for the off-site parking lots. The Welcome Booth sells food and beverage tickets, tickets to the reserved seating section at Kunstplatz and souvenirs. Volunteer hosts will have information about other Lehigh Valley attractions. The Welcome Booth is open noon to 11:00 p.m. daily.

Help grow a delicious family tradition at Familienplatz...

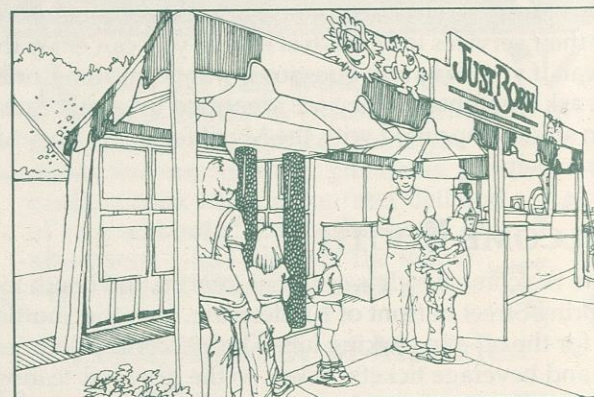

You're invited to pick the next flavor winner for our family tree!

One of Just Born's most popular chewy candy combinations—Cherri & Bubb—was created right here at Musikfest! Our visitors were the secret ingredient: You picked the magic cherry and bubble gum flavors that made Cherri & Bubb an irresistible sensation on the West Coast in its very first market introduction.

Now Cherri & Bubb has come home—it's ready on the shelves of your nearest candy store and super-market. So come and celebrate with a delicious free sample. And keep a flavor-winning tradition growing at Familienplatz—stop by our booth any time during Musikfest '90, and tell us which two fruit flavors you'd like to pick for the newest addition to the Just Born family tree!

While you're there, be sure to enter our fourth annual "Guess the Jelly Beans" contest...and enjoy all the special new events waiting for you and your family at Familienplatz!

MORAVIAN

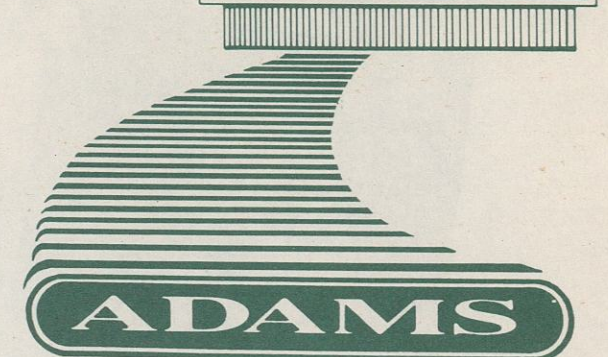

MORAVIAN COLLEGE BETHLEHEM, PENNSYLVANIA

Nearly four centuries ago, John Amos Comenius shook up the world of education. He thought everyone should have a chance to learn, poor as well as rich, women as well as men. He insisted that real learning comes not from memorized facts but from insight that grows from understanding, just as "when a bird is to be clothed with feathers, they are not taken from another bird, but grow from the innermost part of the body."

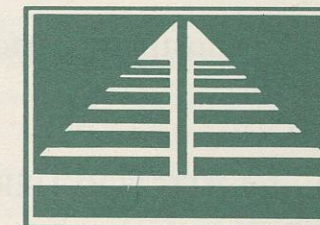

His followers thought the New World was a good place to try out revolutionary ideas. They founded Moravian College.

The Sites of Musikfest

A number of outdoor performance sites, all within walking distance of each other, offers Musikfest visitors a smorgasbord of food and a cornucopia of music.

The naming of the sites, "platz," and the unique spelling of the festival itself build upon Bethlehem's rich Moravian foundation, evident in the city's architecture on Main and Church Streets and within the 18th Century Industrial Area.

Each "platz" offers food, music and activities reflecting a theme. A series of indoor, free and admission concerts offers another venue for sacred, classical and instrumental music. Detailed information about all of the Musikfest sites is explained in detail below.

We encourage you to visit all of the Musikfest sites so that you can fully experience our festival, our hospitality and our beautiful City of Bethlehem.

AMERICAPLATZ
America Place

Since its addition in 1985, First Valley Bank has been the sponsor of the entertainment at this "All American" site. Sit and listen to the great sounds of bluegrass, jazz and big band music while relishing a dish of Chesapeake Bay crabcakes, fruit salad or other regional American dishes. Americaplatz is located on the beautiful plaza at Bethlehem's City Center, Church and New Streets (between City Hall and the Bethlehem Area Public Library). A breathtaking view of South Mountain accentuates the site and provides you with a relaxing fun-packed day. For a menu of the spectacular selections available here, see "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43. For a timetable of performances, see the "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24. Americaplatz is open noon to 11:00 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays, and 6:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. on weekdays.

BLUMENPLATZ Flower Place

Music is the main attraction at Musikfest, but Blumenplatz offers visitors a quiet escape to admire a gorgeous landscape of original floral sculptures, anytime. Hickory Grove Greenhouses and a core of Musikfest flower volunteers transform an 81 foot by 23 foot garden into a floral musical melody. Blumenplatz is located directly behind the Bethlehem Area Public Library between Americaplatz and the Japanese Serenity Garden.

The garden, containing a teahouse and a garden pool, is located west of the Bethlehem Area Public Library. It was built and presented to the City of Bethlehem in 1971 by Mr. Sakon, a prominent Japanese landscaper. The Serenity Garden symbolizes the friendship established between Bethlehem and its Sister City, Tondabayashi, Japan.

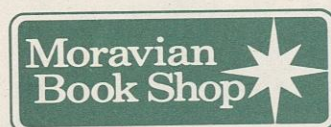

CANDLELIGHT CONCERTS

The Candlelight series offers eight different concerts showcasing classical, instrumental and jazz music. To be held in Foy Concert Hall, these performances will begin on Saturday August 18, and continue nightly through Saturday, August 25. Lehigh Valley Bank invites you to come inside, cool off and enjoy this program which has been a part of Musikfest since 1984. Foy Hall is located in the Moravian College Center for Music and Art, south on Main Street. Performances begin each evening at 6:00 p.m. sharp. Tickets are $5.00. See the "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information, the "PERFORMERS OF MUSIKFEST '90" beginning on page 61 for biographical information, and "Concerts" in the "WHERE TO FIND" section on page 15 for details on tickets. Candlelight Concerts are also supported in part by a grant from the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts.

CHAMBER SERIES

Introduced in 1989, The Chamber Series offers woodwind, piano, strings, harpsichord and classical guitar performances. C. Leslie Smith and The Moravian Book Shop are the sponsors of this series, held in Peter Hall at the Moravian College Center for Music and Art. The entrance is on Main and Church Streets. Concerts will be held each weekday evening at 6:30 p.m. See "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information, "Concerts" in the "WHERE TO FIND" section on page 15 for details on tickets, and the "PERFORMERS OF MUSIKFEST '90" on page 61 for biographical information. The concerts are free, but tickets are required for admission.

FAMILIENPLATZ Family Place

Familienplatz offers visitors the opportunity to enjoy valuable moments with friends, a spouse, or children. At its location on the Broad Street Pedestrian Mall, Familienplatz offers sidewalk chalk drawings for kids and performances that encourage audience participation. Just Born, Inc., the makers of fine confectioneries, invites you to sit and listen to ethnic music, participate with your child in sing alongs, sample the company's products, pick two new fruit flavors, guess the number of jellybeans in a container, and meet Cherri and Bubb, the newest characters on boxes of the company's products. See "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information. Familienplatz hours are noon to 10:00 p.m. On Sunday, August 26, the site will close at 9:30 p.m. A variety of foods is also available. See "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43.

FESTPLATZ Festival Place

At Festplatz, visitors can listen to favorite polka bands, participate in the Chicken Dance, or sit at a table and enjoy a piece of German chocolate cake or a bratwurst platter.

Meridian Bancorp, Inc. and Union Pacific Corporation are the sponsors of the entertainment at this site. Located north of Spring Street, Festplatz also presents, along with your favorite Pennsylvania polka bands, Musikfreunde Geretshausen, a guest band from Landsberg, West Germany. Tables and chairs accommodate guests. For a complete Festplatz menu, see "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43. For performance information see "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 and "PERFORMERS OF MUSIKFEST '90" on page 61 for biographical information. Festplatz is open from noon to 11:00 p.m. daily.

HEALTHPLATZ Health Place

Four first aid stations called "Healthplatz" and a children's area at Kinderplatz are sponsored and staffed by Muhlenberg Hospital Center and St. Luke's Hospital.

- At Festplatz, Healthplatz is located on the grass between the bridge and Spring Street. It is staffed during festival hours by a physician and a nurse, and an ambulance is standing by.
- At Familienplatz, Healthplatz is located in the middle of the Broad Street Pedestrian Mall.
- At Americaplatz, Healthplatz is on the portico of the Bethlehem Area Public Library, facing Church Street.
- At Volksplatz, Healthplatz is located adjacent to the information ticket booth, off of the gravel access road, toward the Broad Street Bridge Arch.
- At Kinderplatz, mothers will have a private area to nurse and change babies' diapers. Supplies for changing diapers will be available. Minor first aid will be provided.

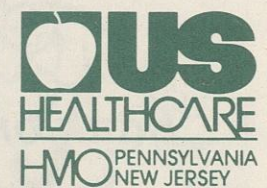

Free blood pressure testing is available at all four Healthplatz locations. First aid service at the festival site is free. If additional treatment is needed, the City of Bethlehem ambulance and/or hospital may charge for services.

KINDERPLATZ Children's Plaza

At its new location on the grassy island between Spring and Lehigh Streets, Kinderplatz will feature expanded craft activities, a tiny backyard circus where children can dress up as lions and tigers to entertain their family and friends, and performers to keep them enthralled. The backyard circus encourages parents to participate with their children by helping them change costumes. U.S. HEALTHCARE HMO PA/NJ invites you to spend time with your children as they make original souvenirs, finger-paint and receive individualized instruction at the Crayola Creativity station. Binney & Smith Inc., the makers of Crayola products, provides the art materials. Kinderplatz is open noon to 8:00 p.m. daily. See "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information and "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43 for a menu of delicious foods.

Parents take note: Kinderplatz is for the whole family to enjoy, please do not leave your child unattended.

KUNSTPLATZ Art Place

For Musikfest '90, Kunstplatz offers free performances by headline entertainers at Bethlehem's Community Arts Pavilion, located along the Monocacy Creek and behind Moravian College's Church Street Campus (south of Main Street). The pavilion was donated by Bethlehem Steel Corporation to the City of Bethlehem in 1980 to commemorate the company's 75th anniversary. It symbolizes Bethlehem Steel's long-standing tradition of commitment to the Bethlehem community. This open-air performing arts facility is a 3,000-square-foot, steel-framed structure with enough space for a 100-member orchestra. The pavilion has become the centerpiece of Musikfest as the site for all feature performances. See the "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information.

Visitors can enter Kunstplatz from the corner of Main and Spring Streets across from Festplatz, or from Lehigh Street, west of the Fahy Bridge.

Guests can bring folding chairs, but Musikfest has a limited reserved seating area immediately in front of the stage. Admission to the area is $3.00 per person. Tickets for all concerts may be purchased at the Kinderplatz "Welcome Booth" on Spring Street (see the map in the centerfold for location) on the day of the concert beginning at noon. Sales are limited to six tickets per person. Blankets are permitted but must be removed after each concert.

A variety of foods and snacks is available for your enjoyment. See "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43.

LIEDERPLATZ Song Place

Behind the 1758 Sun Inn is a gorgeous brick-paved courtyard which Musikfest transforms into an outdoor cabaret. The site, called Liederplatz, presents barbershop quartets, bluegrass, folk and swing. You can sit at an umbrella or picnic table, relax, and enjoy the music. Site hours are noon to 11:00 p.m. On Sunday, August 26, the site will close at 9:30 p.m. A variety of delicious foods and beverages is available nearby. See "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43 for a menu selection and the "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information.

"Bank on Banko"

MAIN STREET MUSIKFEST

The Bethlehem Musikfest Association, in cooperation with the downtown Bethlehem merchants and with support from Orr's Department Store and The Morning Call, are proud to present Main Street Musikfest! This entertainment site offers visitors three performance areas to dance to polka music, laugh at the antics of a street performer, or listen to the soft melodies of an instrumental ensemble. Main Street Musikfest creates a natural bridge between the eastern end of the festival (Familienplatz), and the western end (Festplatz and Volksplatz). A variety of specialty shops on Main Street has offered savings coupons with the purchase of this book. See the "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for a listing of performers and "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43 for food vendor menus.

MURALPLATZ Mural Place

Stationed beside the 1749 Moravian Pottery Wall at Main Street and Ohio Road, Muralplatz is an area where you can view artists creating original paintings on 4 foot by 8 foot panels. Nine artists will be featured throughout the festival's duration. One will be highlighted daily. The artist of the Musikfest '90 poster will also paint a rendition at the site. Biographies can be found in the "MURALPLATZ ARTISTS" section on page 106. For a listing of artists featured daily, see "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24. Greater Bethlehem Savings and Loan Association, sponsor of Muralplatz, invites you to watch the wonderful process of gifted artists creating beauty for the eye, as the musicians at Musikfest are creating beauty for the ear. Art materials are supplied by Binney & Smith Inc.

STREET PERFORMERS

Surprises are wonderful, especially if they make you laugh with delight. At Musikfest, our street performers specialize in making sure that our visitors have a good time. In the best tradition of city festivals everywhere, Musikfest presents street performers who appear at different areas throughout the festival, from noon to 8:00 p.m. weekends and 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. weekdays. Edwards Business Machines, Inc. sponsors the street performances which include musicians, clowns, jugglers, street theater, comedians, and magicians. Musikfest street performers will entertain under a gazebo sign, so look for it on the city streets and keep your eyes open for an amusing surprise! See "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information.

Musikfest is proud to present regional artists performing with acoustic instruments under the lovely shade trees at Moravian College's Church Street Campus (behind Foy Concert Hall). Shows will be weekdays only from 12:30 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. Take an afternoon break and listen to original compositions and traditional folk songs. See "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information.

Edwards Business Machines INC.

VESPER CONCERTS

Musikfest presents five concerts of sacred music from Monday, August 20 to Friday, August 24 in Central Moravian Church at Main and Church Streets. The concerts begin at 6:00 p.m. and are sponsored by the Bethlehem Steel Corporation. Admission is free. See "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information.

Bethlehem

VOLKSPLATZ Peoples Place

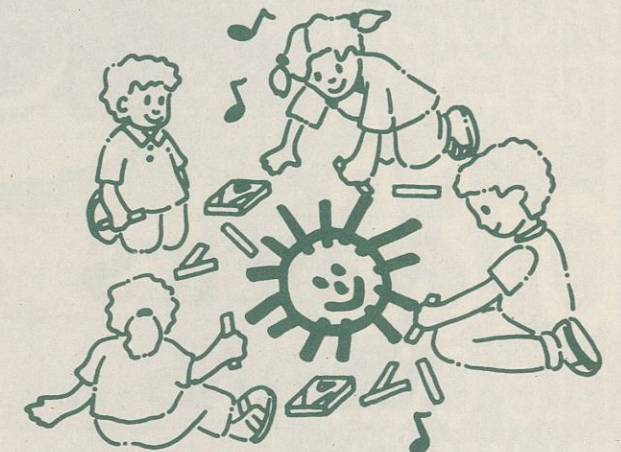

Delectable international foods and intriguing international music—only at Volksplatz can you relish the two together. Under a large tent, festival visitors can sit and listen to Middle Eastern, Latino, Caribbean, and Celtic music while relishing a plateful of Chinese, English, Greek or Filipino dishes. Musikfest continues its tradition of showcasing the diverse ethnic cultures in this community. Located in Johnston Park, near the Luckenbach Mill, RE/MAX Realtors of the Lehigh Valley and the daily entertainment sponsors (Lehigh Valley Cardiology Associates, Bethlehem Counseling Associates, Follett Corp., Packard Associates, O'Hare & Heitzman - Attorneys-at-Law, Bacardi Tropical Fruit Mixers, and Eckert Seamans Cherin & Mellott - Trademark Attorneys) invite you to vicariously experience the world through music. See "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for a detailed daily performance listing and "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43 for the tempting treats at Volksplatz. The site is open from noon to 11:00 p.m. daily.

Performers of Musikfest '90

SCOTT AINSLIE is currently one of the premiere interpreters of the traditional blues and spiritual music of Reverend Gary Davis and Robert Johnson, legendary giants of North Carolina and Mississippi blues. Ainslie is a master of the Delta-style slide guitar. He was a member of the award-winning Fly By Night String Band. He has toured overseas under the auspices of the United States Information Service and the British Arts Council. Ainslie was in the original Broadway cast of Cotton Patch Gospel. He works as a visiting artist for the Carolina Arts Council and the Department of Community Colleges and presents programs on blues and Black music history to public school children. Booking: NoteWorthy Talent, (914) 631-8552. Aug. 18.

The 38-member UNITED STATES AIR FORCE BAND OF THE EAST performs concerts in New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware. The Band's home is at McGuire Air Force Base, New Jersey. Their concerts consist of a multitude of musical styles and soloists. Smaller groups from the band, the Protocol Combo, Brass Quintet, and Woodwind Quintet, will also present concerts during the day. The Air Force Band is commanded and conducted by First Lieutenant Robert A. Pouliot. The Air Force Band of the East appears through the courtesy of Major General Donald A. Logeais, Commander, 21st Air Force Military Airlift Command at McGuire Air Force Base, NJ, 08641 and your local Air Force recruiter. Booking: T. Sgt. Sofet, (609) 724-3115. Aug. 22.

The ALLENTOWN SYMPHONY POPS ORCHESTRA, conducted by Ronald H. Demkee, has been a Lehigh Valley tradition since its beginning in 1961. The Orchestra is supported by the Allentown Symphony Association. Every summer they hold a series of free orchestra concerts at Allentown's West Park. They also present a series of youth programs at Symphony Hall for students from schools in the Lehigh Valley. In 1987, a "Pops for Tots" program was initiated for younger children. It has evolved to include an annual Family Concert series. For the past four years, Demkee and the Orchestra have performed the Nutcracker, one year with the Berkshire Ballet and three years with the Princeton Ballet. Booking: Allentown Symphony Association, (215) 432-7961. Aug. 19.

The five members of ALPEN-GLOW perform authentic music from the Alpine regions of Germany, Bavaria, Austria, Switzerland and Slovenia. The quintet appears in traditional apparel and enjoys singing in German. Their basic instrumental group includes trumpet, clarinet, guitar, accordion and tuba, but they frequently add other instruments. Alpen-Glow has been selected by the Pennsylvania Heritage Affairs Commission, a panel of experts in areas of ethnic and cultural traditions, to represent German music heritage in this state as part of the 1990 "On Tour Program." Booking: Ron Heckman, (412) 835-0211. Aug. 18 and 19.

Saxophone virtuosos, THE AMHERST SAXOPHONE QUARTET, will present a mixed program of classical and pops. The group consists of soprano Salvatore Andolina, alto Michael Nascimben, tenor Stephen Rosenthal, and baritone Harry Fackelman. The quartet was created in 1978 and has continued to perform all over the United States. As part of their concert, they will present the David Stock commission that was supported by the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts. In addition to the ensemble's knowledge of the standard works for saxophone quartet, they have developed an exceptional library of manuscripts consisting of music from the Baroque era, Jazz, Avant Garde and Ragtime. Booking: Siegal Artist Management, (202) 966-0003. Aug. 24.

The Boston Globe has described DAVID AMRAM as "The Renaissance man of American music." He has composed over 100 orchestral and chamber works, written two operas, and, early in his career, written numerous scores for the theater and films such as The Manchurian Candidate and Splendor in the Grass. Recognized as a jazz and folk virtuoso performer, symphonic conductor, classical composer and multi-instrumentalist, Amram has toured throughout the world. He has collaborated with such notables as Dizzy Gillespie, Lionel Hampton, Charles Mingus, Dustin Hoffman, Thelonious Monk, Leonard Bernstein, Willie Nelson, Betty Carter, Arthur Miller and Tito Puente. He annually guest conducts 17 symphony orchestras, combining folk, jazz, Latin, and native American musics with the European classics. Amram is currently recording his chamber, orchestral and jazz compositions, writing music, and raising three young children with his wife, singer/song writer Lora Lee, on their family farm in upstate New York. Amram's performance is supported in part by MEET THE COMPOSER, whose funding is provided through the Composers Performance Fund, supported by the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, National Endowment for the Arts, and the Metropolitan Life, Getty and Xerox Foundations. Booking: David Amram, (914) 528-4305. Aug. 20 and 21.

THE DAVID AMRAM QUARTET has been performing together for 13 years and has appeared regularly at Musikfest since 1986. The quartet has a jazz/Latin orientation but reflects a lifetime of devotion to mastering and re-interpreting the many musics of the world. Instrumentation includes French horn, flutes, piano, percussion, guitar and instruments from around the world. The quartet has appeared with symphonies and at folk festivals in the United States and abroad. Booking: David Amram, (914) 528-4305. Aug. 20.

ANIME' is a trio that performs a repertoire of elegant chamber music. The members are Robin Kani, flute; Rebecca Brown, violin; and Frances Rowell, cello. Anime's members are well known in the Lehigh Valley as soloists and as chamber musicians. Anime' has appeared at Mayfair, Musikfest and the Stroudsburg People's Chamber Series. They recently commis-

AZTEC TWO-STEP is a contemporary folk duo that takes its name from a line in Lawrence Ferlinghetti's collection of poems, A Coney Island of the Mind. Rex Fowler and Neal Shulman have been recording and performing together for 19 years. Their twin guitar sound, with its shimmering, intricate texture, and their distinctive vocal harmonies are landmarks in the development of contemporary acoustic music. The duo recently released a seventh album, See It Was Like This..., a first on the Flying Fish label.
Booking: Rex Fowler, (212) 226-4659. Aug. 19 and 20.

The renowned BACH CHOIR OF BETHLEHEM, a 140-voice choir, and the BACH FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA are directed and conducted by Greg Funfgeld. The choir has been a Bethlehem tradition for nearly a hundred years. Each May, they hold an often sold out Bach Festival in Packer Church. Their Musikfest performance offers another opportunity to hear the masterpieces of Johann Sebastian Bach. This year the choir will feature nationally known vocal soloists, Suzanne Kompass, soprano; Jennifer Lane, mezzo-soprano; and Nathaniel Watson, baritone. Booking: Bach Choir of Bethlehem, (215) 866-4382. Aug. 25.

The Midway Caravan's BACKYARD CIRCUS is a show that invites children to act as lions, tigers and performers with incredible skills. The children and their parents engage energies and imaginations in the creation of an "old-time backyard circus." This little show has traveled across the United States. Everywhere it goes, it takes on the special character of its host community. About 25 children from the audience are picked before showtime to participate. They wear costumes that drop over their clothes. No rehearsal is needed. The Backyard Circus is the beginning of a new form of public entertainment which attempts to lure people away from TV sets and get them involved in community celebration. Booking: Midway Caravan, Inc. (607) 844-8666. Aug. 18-26.

Since 1955, THE LES BAER SEXTET has been performing big band music and swing. The sextet consists of leader and keyboardist Les Baer, trumpet player Del Steedle, vocalist Milly Hay, trombonist Steve Kupferschmid, drummer Joe Borrelli, and bassist Bill Bechtel. Baer refers to the sextet as "the li'l band, with the big band sound." The group has entertained on five consecutive cruises throughout the Caribbean and performed regularly at Musikfest.
Booking: Les Baer, (215) 433-1766. Aug. 26.

BALALAIKA RUSSE is a popular Russian folk ensemble which has performed for Russian nobility, local church halls, outdoor concerts and society balls. The ensemble includes Alexander Alexandrovich, prima domra; Alan Zemel, bass domra; Bill Melick, prima balalaika and director; Judy Sherman, vocals and alto balalaika; Gary Nova, vocals and guitar; and Steve Wolownik, contrabass balalaika. They are considered one of the finest ensembles in the United States.

Booking: Steve Wolownik, (215) 985-4678. Aug. 26.

He started in 1972, graduated from Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus Clown College in 1977, and is going strong today. BALLOONS THE CLOWN performs more than 350 shows per year. He charms audiences of all ages with his quick wit and clever questions in addition to his comedy magic routine. Also known as Neal Fehnel, he returns to the festival for the fourth year. Booking: Balloons the Clown Productions/Fun Affairs, (215) 253-2835. Aug. 18.

Since coming to the Lehigh Valley, DOUG and JOAN BARBER have been entertaining for private parties, performing in both amateur and professional stage productions, appearing with various choral and instrumental groups, teaching and directing. The Barbers have appeared at Musikfest annually since its inception. Their 1990 presentation will be "A Hollywood Cabaret." The Barbers' repertoire is a combination of American traditional, comedy/variety, jazz, musical theater and pop music. Joan is a regular guest artist with the Muhlenburg Summer Theatre and Doug teaches voice and directs musicals throughout the Lehigh Valley.
Booking: Doug Barber, (215) 868-3658. Aug. 22.

The MUSICAL THEATRE STUDENTS OF DOUG and JOAN BARBER will sing a repertoire similar to Doug and Joan's with piano accompaniment. Aug. 23.

MICHÈLE BAUTIER, a volatile pop-jazz singer from New Jersey, has established herself as a cabaret favorite and appeared on Broadway in the 1986 musical revue Stardust. Bautier has been appearing annually at Musikfest since 1987. Her voice, with its purity, discipline and better than three octave range, is ideally suited to the kind of wide-open improvisational jazz that's now her specialty. Her QUINTET features piano, bass, drums and guitar. She has performed at Freddy's Supper Club, Michael's Pub, Eighty-Eight's and Carnegie Hall. Bautier has been the subject of feature stories and interviews on NBC's "Live At Five" with Sue Simmons, ABC Television news, the PBS Television network, PBS Radio and WWOR Radio and TV.
Booking: Michèle Bautier, (201) 775-6107. Aug. 25.

BEAUSOLEIL is Michael Doucet, fiddle, vocals and founder of the group; David Doucet, guitar and vocals; Jimmy Breau, Cajun accordion; Tommy Alesi, drums; Billy Ware, percussion; and Tommy Comeaux, electric bass. Their repertoire ranges from traditional Cajun two steps and waltzes to bluesy Zydeco songs, and from pop-flavored New Orleans tunes to "Cajunized" versions of classic rock and roll. They received a recent Grammy nomination for their album, Bayou Cadillac. Their music was featured on the movie sound tracks of The Big Easy and Belizaire the Cajun, and they have appeared on The Today Show and West 57th. Booking: Herschel Freeman Agency, (919) 493-6208. Beethoven Choruses

Big Nite Out

Boo Doo

The BEETHOVEN CHORUSES appear at Musikfest for the fifth time. The men's chorus (Maennerchor) was founded in 1891; the women's chorus (Damenchor) started in 1922. The choruses have won many awards and together have performed in many secular and religious concerts throughout the Lehigh Valley, and at their present home, the Beethoven Waldheim in Leithsville, PA. They perform a combination of American traditional, European and folk music. Booking: Gus Skrivaneck, (215) 866-8602. Aug. 25.

The BETHLEHEM A CAPELLA SINGERS is a choral ensemble that has been appearing at Musikfest annually since 1984. The singers have been together for about ten years. The group has its central interest in the music of the English Renaissance, but it has developed its repertoire to include music of the 20th century. THE MORAVIAN COLLEGE COLLEGIUM MUSICUM originated at the college's Department of Music and was founded in 1975 by Larry Lipkis. The Collegium's repertoire is Renaissance and Early Baroque music played on copies of the original instruments. Booking: Peter Sipple, (215) 691-1600. Aug. 20.

The BETHLEHEM ELKS STAGE BAND was founded in 1946 and has been performing locally since then. The band currently plays with 17 members including a female vocalist. A concert includes numbers such as "Take the A-Train," "In the Mood," "String of Pearls," and "The Woodchoppers Ball." They perform at Eastern Pennsylvania country clubs, dances and in parks and playgrounds throughout the Lehigh Valley. Booking: David Neith, (215) 691-2294. Aug. 18.

The seven-piece swing band, BIG NITE OUT!, has been together for ten years. The band features the harmonies of three vocalists, Wendi Bourne, Anne Patterson and Lauren Bono. Band members are Tom Mitchell, guitar; Troy Corley, sax and clarinet; Dave Grant, bass; and Pete Barus, drums. The group's first album is due to be released soon. They have performed at Penn's Landing, the Philadelphia Folk Festival, and many local events. The band was nominated for a Philadelphia Music Award in 1990. Booking: Wendi Bourne, (215) 723-5037. Aug. 20.

MARK BODEY is a full-time professional magician, comedian, and mentalist. He has studied his profession extensively at the Chavez College of Magic in Colon, Michigan. Bodey has performed in eleven states with his unique, award winning style of entertainment. Bodey began performing in 1980 and has appeared at Musikfest. He currently performs regularly in the Poconos and the tri-state area. Booking: Mark Bodey, (215) 682-6579. Aug. 25 and 26.

The four-piece band, BOO DOO, blends the styles of jazz, new age and rock. The band has been together for four years. The group consists of multi-reedist Bob Magnuson, guitarist Tony Viscardo, acoustic bass player and vocalist John Arbo, and vocalist and percussionist Joe Passaro. All of the members have performed at the Kool Jazz Festival, for Broadway shows, and at Musikfest. Booking: No Comment Productions, (201) 779-8454. Aug. 24.

VINCE BOTTEON AND THE BAVARIAN AMBASSADORS ORCHESTRA has performed together for over twenty-five years and appeared at Musikfest annually since its inception. The orchestra's repertoire includes polka and folk music. They have played at festivals throughout the East Coast and have been the back-up group for European performers such as Klaus and Sepp, and Tony Marshall. The group has produced four recordings. Booking: Vince Botteon, (215) 435-1013. Aug. 18.

JOHN BRESSLER and his high-tech, electronic "orchestra" have been appearing at Musikfest since 1987. Bressler is a high-energy, dedicated musical artist whose greatest pleasure is making music and making people happy. He has performed with top musicians such as The Oak Ridge Boys, Willie Nelson, Ray Charles, and Miami Sound Machine. Bressler recently recorded a new album in Nashville called Fresh Ground. His videos have appeared on MTV and VH1. Bressler performs most often throughout the East Coast and California. Booking: John Bressler, (215) 987-3531. Aug. 21.

Chris Simmons and company present the songs and monologues of the British Music Hall Stage, 1867-1914. Simmons, a Bethlehem resident, is the producer of "AN EVENING AT A BRITISH MUSIC HALL." He is well known as a researcher and interpreter of Music Hall material. The ensemble has performed several times at Musikfest. Booking: Chris Simmons, (215) 861-0867. Aug. 24.

The BROTHERS IN HARMONY men's chorus was organized in 1982 with fifty men and today has a total membership of eighty. Darrel Hill is the music director. The chorus is competition oriented and committed to excellence in singing the unique American style of four-part harmony. Besides the traditional barbershop, their music includes Broadway show tunes, patriotic and spiritual renditions. They have performed at many local festivals and events. Booking: Robert Kishbaugh, (215) 867-1648. Aug. 18.

SAUL BROUDY presents music from the roots of American culture. His career spans almost 20 years of performance in virtually every major folk music venue in the United States, Canada, and Europe. He is a veteran performer on the folk scene, and an audience favorite at all his shows. He sings country, blues, bluegrass and other traditional and contemporary forms of grassroots American music, accompanying himself on acoustic guitar and harmonica. He will be joined by Jay Ansill, mandolin and fiddle, and Dennis Gormley, bass. Broudy holds a Ph.D. in folklore from the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. Booking: Saul Broudy, (215) 567-0193. Aug. 20.

THE BROWNSTONE PUPPET THEATRE combines classic comedy, music and mime with hand, rod and shadow puppets, performed in a traditional puppet booth. The theater was founded in 1976 as a touring puppet theater. They have performed in schools, museums, theaters, and festivals throughout the Northeastern United States and Canada. In 1988, Bob and Nancy Brownstone received a grant for a new work in shadow puppets for the New Hope Theatre Festival. In 1989, they were involved in a cultural exchange tour with Great Britain and the Soviet Union. Booking: Brownstone Puppet Theatre, (215) 391-0869. Aug. 26.

The BUZZ BAND is Tom Walz, lead guitar, harmonica and vocals; Ray Garcia, rhythm guitar and vocals; Lee LaBar, bass; and Scott Balliet, drums. The Bethlehem-based band plays blues, rockin' blues and country. The band's members have been playing in various local bands for up to 25 years. Walz is known for hosting the Blues Jam at Godfrey Daniels Coffeehouse and A Case of the Blues radio show on WMUH. Booking: Tom Walz, (215) 865-9141. Aug. 26.

TOM CHAPIN is a nationally known folksinger/guitarist. He makes a repeat Candlelight appearance this year. (Last year's Candlelight Concert was sold out almost a month before his show.) Chapin was the host of ABC-TV's Make A Wish, for which he won an Emmy and a Peabody Award. He enjoys working with children and has recently completed an album for children titled Family Tree. Chapin will also introduce a children's series at the newly expanded Kinderplatz site. During his musical career, Chapin has recorded three solo albums: Life Is Like That, In The City Of Mercy, and Let Me Back Into Your Life. Booking: Music Tree, (412) 323-2707. Aug. 20.

The Lehigh Valley-based CHORDIAL CONNECTION barbershop quartet has a combined chorus and quartet singing experience of over 115 years. The quartet consists of Larry Reagan, Bob Szabo, Bob Kishbaugh and Carl Roberts. Their repertoire includes American traditional and gospel/religious music. The Connection has been singing for banquets, weddings, and church organizations. They have appeared at Allentown's Mayfair and Easton's Heritage Day. Booking: Bob Kishbaugh, (215) 867-1648. Aug. 18.

CHUMP THE CLOWN originated from a Christian clowning group associated with the Jordan United Church of Christ. He has been performing for ten years. He uses oversized props such as a giant camera, hot dog, scissors, and a fly swatter. He designed a balloon sculpture for Whitney Houston, which was shown in one of her videos, and one for Sandi Patti when she performed in Allentown. He enjoys entertaining children and adults throughout the Lehigh Valley. Booking: Robert Schantz, (215) 437-4324. Aug. 26.

The internationally acclaimed Celtic rock group THE CLAN combines traditional melodies from Ireland, Scotland, Brittany, Wales and Cornwall, with rock 'n' roll, jazz and blues. Contemporary and Celtic instruments are used, including the highland warpipes, penny whistles, and bodhrans (Irish drum), as well as electric guitars and keyboards. The members are Dianna Sunn, Tom "Flash" Lenahan, Shawn Kiernan, Jim Nordstrom, Lisa Gutkin, Christa Patton and Greg Sharpe. Their debut album, Beginning of the World, was released in 1988. Booking: CNG Management, (201) 963-0156. Aug. 24.

CLARENCE THE CLOWN is making his seventh appearance at Musikfest. His presentation, as he describes it, uses "balloons, more balloons, some magic, and lots more balloons." Some of his career highpoints are "Doing Dorney," 1987 Kids' Week, meeting Mickey Mouse and Goofy, and receiving an award from the Scranton State School for the Deaf in 1986 and 1987 (the latter two as real life Bruce J. Ward of Bethlehem, PA). Clarence is noted both for his balloon sculptures and his profound weakness for chocolate bars—plain or almond. Booking: Bruce Ward, (215) 262-9772. Aug. 18, 20 and 26.

Tenor Robert Cohen and soprano Karen Smith present a program of American pop classics, solos and duets called COHEN AND SMITH SING BROADWAY. Cohen and Smith will be accompanied by pianist Richard Groman. The duo has been singing together for five years. Their music includes songs by Cole Porter, Gershwin, Irving Berlin, and Rogers and Hammerstein. Their "Valentine Cabaret" at Godfrey Daniels was a standing-room-only success. Booking: Robert Cohen, (215) 867-1818. Aug. 21.

The CONCORD CHAMBER SINGERS were established in Easton in 1968 but have been in Bethlehem since 1970. The 40-member ensemble was founded by Music Director, Dr. Blaine Shover. Their concerts feature the classical music of Mendelssohn, Mozart, Vivaldi, Haydn, Bruckner, and Bach. The group performed Haydn's The Creation in 1989 with the Lehigh Valley Chamber Orchestra. Other special performances have included A Feast Of Song At Christmastide, an annual event at the Hotel Bethlehem, and collaborations with the Lehigh University choirs of the Verdi Requiem in 1988 and Brahms Requiem in 1990. Upon invitation, the singers recently performed in the Salzburg Church Music Festival and in Vienna, Austria. Booking: Nadine Sine, (215) 865-0494. Aug. 22.

The Bethlehem-based group, CONNECTIONS, performs interpretive sign language to music. Kim McCall, Paula Toborowski and Sheila Yochum have been working together for a year. Their repertoire includes a variety of music from rock to children's songs, dance and pantomime. Toborowski and McCall are alumni of Bloomsburg University where they were members of Image, an interpretive sign language group. They are presently working as teachers of the hearing impaired. Booking: Kim McCall, (215) 264-5057. Aug. 25.

COUNTRY CURRENT, the U.S. Navy's premier country-bluegrass group, is the only unit among the premier service bands that showcases music from America's heartland. The band originated in 1973 and has seven members. Frequent visitors at the White House and a favorite of President Bush, the group has performed with Charlie Daniels, the Statler Brothers and Juice Newton. The band has appeared on the Grand Ole Opry, the Wheeling Jamboree and the Academy of Country Music Awards. The Musikfest concert will feature the five-member acoustic bluegrass unit. Booking: Officer in Charge/Leader, U.S. Navy Band, (202) 433-3676. Aug. 21.

RICHARD COWLEY, STREET MAGICIAN, has been a regular performer at Philadelphia's New Market. He specializes in direct, baffling, in-your-face magic; no high tech is tolerated! The magic in his show is secondary to the exciting, live performance. He uses simple props and his favorite instrument—the audience. Cowley emphasizes the performance, not the performer. Booking: Richard Cowley, (215) 258-1014. Aug. 24 and 25.

The blues band CROSSCUT SAW has been together for five years and appeared at Musikfest in 1987 and 1988. The group consists of Mike Mettalia, Stephen Ricker, Jody Byram and Jerry Adams. Instrumentation includes guitar, bass, drums and High points of their career include opening for Blues greats Ronnie Earl, Jerry Portnoy and Sonny Rhodes. Booking: Mike Mettalia, (215) 538-7907. Aug. 25.

DAVID CULLEN is one of America's truly outstanding young guitarists. He graduated from the University of Hartford School of Music. After performing with a variety of musicians and teaching music at the college level, he launched his solo career. Cullen has released two albums, Vacation Conversation and Blue Counterpoint and was featured on the 1988 Windham Hill Guitar Sampler. His repertoire includes jazz, blues, gospel harmonies and classical music. He has opened for such acts as David Benoit, Tracy Chapman, Michael Brecker and Bonnie Raitt. Booking: Twin City Talent, (612) 789-7225. Aug. 21.

D.J. AND THE C.B. PICKERS is a country and bluegrass band that also plays a variety of 50's and gospel music. Instrumentation includes guitar, dobro, bass, banjo, mandolin, and fiddle. The group has been together for about ten years and has performed annually at Musikfest since 1988. Booking: Betty Jones, (717) 642-5394. Aug. 18.

The DAISY JUG BAND, known for "Good Time Music," has performed together for almost twenty years. The band has been appearing at Musikfest regularly since 1987. The sextet consists of Harold Harr, washtub bass; Ed Stolosky, scrub-board; Dick Gerlack, banjo and mandolin; Vic Paul, keyboards and gardenhose; Paul Aussicker, guitar; and Joe Warne, mandolin and banjo. The band performs a variety of music such as bluegrass, country and western, folk music, ragtime, Dixieland, jugband music, and '50s and '60s oldies. In 1988, the band was named "Entertainers of the Year" by the Bucks County Courier Times. Booking: Vic Paul, (215) 736-3357. Aug. 18.

DAMIAN BOUCHER is a violinist/entertainer who has brought his brand of musical expertise from the East Coast to Hawaii to Norway. His repertoire consists of a combination of classical, country, swing, show tunes, top 40, Irish, Gypsy and ethnic music. When not performing solo, Damian performs with his own pop-rock band, Fiddlin' Round, several bluegrass groups, and a duo called Irish Aliens. Boucher has a degree in English, which he uses for his other love, songwriting. He has appeared at Musikfest previously. Booking: Damian Boucher, (201) 352-1969. Aug. 18.

ALLEN WAYNE DAMRON, musician and adventurer, hails from Texas where he works as a hunting guide. Damron has been performing for about thirty years. His repertoire includes folk, country and classical music. He plays guitar and banjo. Damron's most recent album is entitled Sweeping Up Dreams. In 1986, he was designated a "Sesquicentennial Goodwill Ambassador to the World" for the "Celebrate Texas" tour. He continues to fill this role, travelling all over the U.S. and to Mexico and Europe. Booking: Noteworthy Productions, (301) 268-8232. Aug. 22.

The Emmaus-based ensemble, DAYBREAK, performs a combination of American traditional, bluegrass and folk music. The ensemble consists of John Lavalley, mandolin; Denis Blodgett, guitar and penny whistle; Sally Cole, guitar and vocals; and Clifford Cole, hammered dulcimer. They have been performing together since 1988 and regularly appear at local festivals. Booking: Sally Cole, (215) 965-9017. Aug. 19 and 25.

The Bethlehem-based FRANK DIBUSSOLO QUARTET consists of Frank DiBussolo, guitar and vocals; June Thomas, keyboards and vocals; Vince Marshall, electric bass; and Ron Reiterman, drums. Their repertoire includes classical, Latin, jazz, pop and swing music. DiBussolo has performed with Buddy Rich, Frank Sinatra, and Dianne Carroll. He is the Director of Production for the International Association of Jazz Educators and on the music faculty at Lehigh University. Booking: Frank DiBussolo, (215) 866-1683. Aug. 25.

JOHN DOAN is one of the few musicians in the world composing and performing on the exotic harp guitar, an instrument that adds bass and treble strings to either side of an ordinary six string guitar. Its enriched resonance and textural possibilities are the perfect medium for Doan's lyrical compositions. Besides being a master of the harp guitar, the Renaissance lute and both classical and contemporary guitar styles, Doan is a talented composer, storyteller and musicologist who has appeared on radio and television programs in the United States and Europe. His nationally acclaimed debut album Departures was released on Narada Records. Booking: Nancy Carlin Productions, (415) 686-1828. Aug. 24, 25 and 26.

Mike Dugan's guitar style has been compared to Eric Clapton's and Roy Buchanan's. Dugan and Scott Siska, bass and vocals; Dave Dionisi, sax and vocals; and Bryan Schreiter, drums and percussion make up MIKE DUGAN AND THE SURVIVAL BAND. Dugan was named "Blues Guitarist of 1985" by Showbusiness News and nominated by the Philadelphia Music Foundation for the 1988 "Philly" award for the best contemporary folk performer. He has emerged as one of the area's best blues performers. The band recently appeared with Joan Lunden and Leslie Nielson on WWOR-TV's Everyday. "Here We Go Again," a song from their CD, Workin', was included in the feature film, Lonely in America. Booking: Mike Dugan, MCD Music, (215) 797-7952. Aug. 19.

DUKE AND THE BRIER PATCH PUPPETS are perennial Musikfest favorites. Duke Kraus has been a puppeteer for 13 years. He was selected as a feature performer at the 1st International Street Performer Festival in Key West, Florida, in 1987. Kraus uses his puppets and imagination in a show to bring joy to his audience. He began his work as a street performer and now appears at colleges, corporations, comedy clubs and museums. Booking: Duke Kraus, (215) 252-1916. Aug. 18, 19 and 24.

The MARVIN FALCON ENSEMBLE performs jazz, swing and pop music. Instrumentation includes guitar, flute, sax, bass and drums. Falcon has worked with Miriam Makeba, Harry Belafonte, Ronnie Gilbert and the Paul Winter Jazz Sextet. He has recorded on RCA Records and has appeared on The Today Show and The Tonight Show. Booking: Marvin Falcon, (215) 433-1688. Aug. 24.

The GUITAR STUDENTS OF MARVIN FALCON are part of the Lehigh Valley Guitar and Ensemble Society of which Falcon is president. They have performed at Musikfest and area churches, hospitals and nursing homes. They are young people who work hard and enjoy the opportunity to perform for others. Aug. 24.

FRAN FALLON is a popular newcomer to the Allentown-Bethlehem acoustic entertainment scene. This is her second appearance at Musikfest. Fallon has been busy writing contemporary love songs and performing at local festivals and concerts, including Phil Stahl Acoustic Showcases. Stahl "discovered" Fallon in 1988. Fallon has been playing guitar and writing songs for fifteen years. Her repertoire includes folk and pop music. Booking: Fran Fallon, (215) 345-1315. Aug. 22.

A FAMILY FOLK DANCE WITH HANNY BUDNICK is an audience participation event. She was a leader of audience participation dances at Philadelphia's folk fairs in the '60s and '70s and has offered folk dance workshops at the Philadelphia Folk Festival. For thirty years, Budnick has been teaching a variety of folk dances including those from Germany, Austria, Denmark, France, Yugoslavia and Turkey. She will be backed by the eastern European ensemble, ZIMA, and invites all festival goers who are eight or older to dance. Zima started in Philadelphia in 1975 and consists of original members John Matulis and Dorothy Yacek-Matulis, and Daniel Beerbohm and David Sayen. They use authentic folk instruments such as the accordion, balalaika, domra, clarinet, string bass and doumbek. Booking: Hanny Budnick, (215) 844-2474; John Matulis, (215) 328-6843. Aug. 20.

MAGIC AND ILLUSIONS BY FANTASIA-KI returns to Musikfest for a third year. Fantasia is magician George C. Reiger, Jr. Fantasia-Ki performs over 200 shows each year all over the country and in Europe. Reiger has the largest illusion show in our area with a total of thirty-eight full size illusions. Booking: George Reiger, (215) 250-8745. Aug. 19 and 25.

Formed in 1986, FIESTA WINDS is an ensemble of professional musicians committed to performing great works for wind quintets. Fiesta Winds is so named because of its desire to familiarize audiences with wind chamber music of Latin American composers. The group consists of Ellen Finks, flute; Rheta Smith, oboe; Kathleen Harrod, clarinet; Karin Meyer, bassoon; and Joan Dowlin, horn. In 1989, the ensemble played the premiere performance of John Davison's Sextet for wind quintet and piano at Haverford College. They have also performed at numerous concerts in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Booking: Ellen Finks, (215) 367-0947. Aug. 22.

Performing songs from their award-winning, critically acclaimed children's albums, CATHY FINK AND MARCY MARXER bring challenging and entertaining music to the whole family. Fink and Marxer accompany themselves on dulcimer, guitar, five-string banjo, mandolin, fiddle, spoons and mouth bow. Their repertoire includes a combination of American traditional, bluegrass, country and western, swing and folk music. In 1986, the duo toured Japan. In 1989 they taped ten segments on how to build homemade instruments with children for The Nashville Network's American Magazine. Booking: New Music Times, Inc., (518) 438-4815. Aug. 23.

FLAMENCO OLE' will bring the spirit and excitement of Spain to Volksplatz. Flamenco is sensuous and arrogant dance, feet pounding in a staccato celebration. Through the medium of flamenco, Julia Lopez, Carlos Rubio and company have enthralled audiences everywhere. Their colorful costumes, authentic dance, songs and musical arrangements should not be missed! Booking: Young Audiences of Eastern PA, (215) 977-7707. Aug. 25.

The four-piece PETE FLUCK BAND plays blues, rock and jazz. All of their compositions are from Fluck's soon to be released CD. Fluck is best known for his double sax routine. Included in the band is Bill Goodwin (Phil Wood's drummer). Booking: Pete Fluck, (215) 866-1490. Aug. 25.

FOUR NATIONS ENSEMBLE consists of a violinist, cellist and harpsichordist. This will be the early music ensemble's second appearance in the Musikfest Chamber Series. They play classical and baroque music on original instruments. Booking: Andrew Appel, (718) 622-3695. Aug. 21.

FOUR'S COMPANY has been entertaining audiences throughout the Lehigh Valley at festivals, banquets and reunions with its unique blend of barbershop harmony and humor. The quartet consists of Bill Koczen, tenor; Lou Nicharot, lead vocalist; Dick Pedersen, baritone; and Terry Johnson, bass. Members also sing in the Lehigh Valley Harmonizers, the chorus of the Allentown-Bethlehem Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America. Booking: Bill Koczen, (215) 866-7918. Aug. 26.

FREEDOM AIRS is a Lehigh Valley-based polka band which has been together for forty-five years. Instrumentation includes trumpet, cordovox and drums. The MOCK TURTLE MARIONETTE THEATER of Bethlehem was created by Doug and Christy Roysdon. A charter performer at Musikfest, the theater has presented its puppet and marionette show in the Museum of the City of New York, the Philadelphia Museum of Art, Lincoln Center Performing Arts Library, Longwood Gardens, and the Golden Puppetry Anniversary Festival in Washington, D.C. Mock Turtle also appears regularly at many regional schools, festivals, libraries and museums, and is known for its original scripts and carved wooden marionette designs. Booking: Doug Roysdon, (215) 867-8208. Aug. 25.

The MORAVIAN TROMBONE CHOIR is very much a part of the musical history of Bethlehem. It is the oldest musical organization in the country (founded in 1754) and offers a unique glimpse of the past. From the belfry of the Central Moravian Church, the trombonists announce all church festivals by playing chorales. As it has for each Musikfest, the choir will sound chorales from the belfry on the first day of the festival. Booking: Don Kemmerer, (215) 439-7447. Aug. 18.

The MORGAN VALLEY ROAD BAND characterize their style as that of a "Good-time-toe-tappin'-ragtime-blues-swing-folk-gospel-jazz band for all ages." The band has been together for sixteen years and has performed at Musikfest annually since 1987. Instrumentation includes acoustic guitar, cornet, harmonica, saxophone, bass guitar, piano and drums. In 1989, the group produced its most recent cassette, Struttin', Ravin', but Behavin'. They appear regularly at many local festivals, fairs and concerts. Booking: Terry Wild Studios, (717) 745-3257. Aug. 19.

MOSAIC is a Philadelphia-based, jazz-fusion band consisting of five members, Marc Adler, flute; Craig Thomas, bass; Dave Falciani, keyboards; Vic Stevens, drums; and Frank "Squirrel" Williams, percussion. The group uses "multi-effects" to augment the traditional sounds of the flute and keyboards. Adler and Falciani are involved in the composition of the music. Booking: Marc Adler. (215) 483-7086. Aug. 18.

The MOUNTAIN LAUREL BLUEGRASS BAND has been performing together for three years. Members are Ty Searfoss, guitar and lead vocals; Mark Arrington, fiddle and vocals; John Catterall, banjo and vocals; George Steck, bass and vocals; and Leticia Arrington, vocals. The band has performed several times at the Philadelphia Bluegrass and Old-Time Music Festival. They have played at Sunset Park, the oldest active country music park, and have opened for Loretta Lynn.

Booking: Ty Searfoss, (215) 867-1367. Aug. 19.

Mark Lincoln Braun, a.k.a. MR. B, plays tribute to the original masters of blues piano, yet embellishes the rich tradition with a style and voice all his own. This pianist has been playing his infectious brand of blues and boogie for audiences in the U.S., Europe, Canada and Mexico. He has released three albums, B's Bounce, Mr. B-Detroit Special and Shining The Pearls. He also contributed to Partners In Time on Chicago's Blind Big Records with jazz greats J.C. Heard and Marcus Belgrave.

Booking: Fleming, Tamulevich and Associates, Inc.,
(313) 995-9066. Aug. 18.

Between them, the husband and wife duo of DANA MULLER and GARY STEIGERWALT have nearly sixty years of piano playing experience. They frequently combine talents to perform a unique repertoire of four-hand piano music. Their second Musikfest appearance will be in conjunction with the Allentown-based Pennsylvania Sinfonia Orchestra. Steigerwalt is a member of the performing faculty of Mount Holyoke College, and Muller is a member of the piano faculty of the Hartt School of Music. Booking: Steigerwalt/Muller, (413) 532-7648. Aug. 22

The MUNICIPAL OPERA COMPANY OF ALLENTOWN has been performing for sixty-two years. They have presented musical productions in opera, operetta and music theater. Their purpose is to provide the community with an opportunity to enjoy participation in the musical theater. The company, under the direction of E.K. Peters, Director Emeritus, is an outgrowth of the Allentown YMCA and YWCA choruses. The company is made up of volunteers who perform at local festivals, summer park concerts and area retirement homes. Booking: Helen Iobst, (215) 965-2586. Aug. 26.

The MUSIKFEST CHICKEN, portrayed by Pat Holetz, originated as the result of the popularity of the Chicken Dance Polka at Musikfest '84. The Chicken has become the mascot and goodwill ambassador of Musikfest. She annually greets and dances with visitors to the festival. Holetz is on the Musikfest Ball Committee and is a Nite Lite Tour Guide for the Bethlehem Chamber of Commerce. She has taught the popular chicken dance on TV shows such as Hatchie Malatchie and at various local clubs and organizations. Aug. 18-26.

THE MUSIKFEST CHORUS consists of volunteer singers and exists only five weeks each year. The chorus, conducted by Greg Funfgeld, originated in 1985 to celebrate Musikfest and the three hundredth anniversary of Handel's birth. Since then, the repertoire has ranged from Beethoven and Brahms to Gershwin and spirituals, including a work written especially for the group's 1988 concert - Karl DeBoeser's "A Song of John Donne." This year the chorus joins forces with a large ensemble of brass and percussion instruments in a program of Renaissance and contemporary works. The chorus will present a program which includes Giovanni Gabrieli's In Ecclesiis, Heinrich Schutz's Psalm 100, Aaron Copland's Fanfare For The Common Man, and John Rutter's dynamic Gloria. Aug. 24.

Over 1,200 music bands and 2,800 choirs exist in the small state of Bavaria. Therefore, the small village of Geretshausen is very proud of the accomplishments and high standards of MUSIKFREUNDE GERETSHAUSEN. The ensemble began as a brass band in 1923 under the direction of Leonhard Kaut. Kaut was succeeded by three other directors, including the

Deiter Bros. and Service Electric Team Up To Co-Sponsor Concert

BETHLEHEM—The Temptations, widely regarded as one of the most popular male vocal groups in U.S. music history, are slated to perform in a free concert at Musikfest '90 on Monday, August 20, 8:00 p.m.

During the 1960's and 70's the quintet chalked up an unmatched forty Top-40 hits, among them four # 1 tunes—"My Girl" (1965); "I Can't Get Next To You" (1969); "Just My Imagination" (1971) and "Papa Was A Rolling Stone" (1972). All were recorded on the Motown label which also showcased The Supremes, the era's top female vocal group.

The concert is made possible through the co-sponsorship of two well-known Lehigh Valley companies, Deiter Brothers Fuel

THE TEMPTATIONS

Service Electric's local origination channel, the Super 2, will be providing extensive coverage of Musikfest '90 to over 200,000 cable TV homes in Northeast Pennsylvania.

Because this appearance of the legendary Temptations promises to be one of the best-attended performances in Musikfest's seven year history, fans are encouraged to situate early in Kunstplatz, the open air concert site.

current one, Rudolph Wanka. In 1973, the band received its current name when the mayor invited the music friends in the surrounding villages to support the band. The band performed at the 20th Annual Lech-Ammersee District Music Festival and won first place in a music competition in 1983. In 1984, they appeared at a festival in Langwied-Lochausen (near Munich), their first concert outside of their county. With each passing year, the number of performances has increased, their repertoire has grown and the band has become well-known outside the Geretshausen and Landsberg County area. Aug. 18-26.

The four members of THE NATURALS play a variety of big band, country and western, polka and pop music, but they consider themselves to be primarily a Polish-style polka band. The Lehigh Valley-based group has been performing together for seven years. This is their second appearance at Musikfest. Instrumentation includes drums, accordion, bass, trumpets, tenor sax, electronic keyboard, and violin. The quartet regularly performs at area church festivals. Booking: Ed Cherski, (215) 262-7532. Aug. 21 and 22.

THE NEW COON CREEK GIRLS derive their name from the legendary group, the Coon Creek Girls, of the '30s and '40s. Members are Annie Kaser, vocals and banjo; Vicki Simmons, bass, banjo and vocals; Wanda Barnett, guitar, fiddle and vocals; and Deanie Richardson, fiddle, mandolin and vocals. The band performs on the U.S. and Canadian bluegrass festival circuit. Booking: Lancer Agency, (615) 822-0222. Aug. 20.

HARLEY NEWMAN has been clowning for nineteen years. The high points of his career include getting three tables of business executives to hang spoons off of their noses, lighting someone's cigarette by spitting a fireball, persuading a room of senior citizens to play footsie, and escaping from a tightly wrapped cocoon of Saran Wrap. Booking: Harley Newman, (215) 432-0200. Aug. 19.

THE NEW TRADITION has been performing together for four years. Their repertoire includes bluegrass, country and western, and gospel music. Members are Danny Roberts, mandolin and vocals; Fred Duggin, guitar and vocals; Richie Dotson, banjo and vocals; and Daryl Mosley, bass and lead vocals. Mosley is also a prolific songwriter who composes most of the band's original material. They played at the International Bluegrass Music Association's Showcase in 1989 and have been selected to play at the Telluride Bluegrass Festival and the Louisville Music Festival in 1990. Booking: John Howard Agency, (513) 896-9762. Aug. 20.

The NIGHT OWLS originated a year and a half ago at Godfrey Daniels. Their repertoire consists of swing and folk music accompanied by guitar. Booking: Jesse Grim, (215) 866-0811. Aug. 24.

PETER NOONE is currently the host of VH-1's My Generation, a retrospective program on the '60s, '70s and '80s. At 15, he achieved international fame as "Herman," lead singer of the phenomenally-successful British rock band Herman's Hermits. Songs such as "Mrs. Brown, You've Got A Lovely Daughter," "Henry The VIII," "There's A Kind Of Hush," "Can't You Hear My Heartbeat," "I'm Into Something Good," and "A Must To Avoid" translated into 14 gold records, 7 gold albums and 23 bestselling recordings. Noone starred in two MGM feature films, Hold On! and Mrs. Brown, You've Got A Lovely Daughter, and two TV specials, ABC's The Canterville Ghost and NBC's production of Pinocchio. He also starred on Broadway, in London and on tour in the musical hit, The Pirates of Penzance, and in the Los Angeles Actors Theatre's Topokana Martyr's Day. In 1989, Noone released his re-make of "I'm Into Something Good" for Paramount's The Naked Gun. Booking: ICM, (213) 273-5255. Aug. 23.

Acoustic rocker JAMIE NOTARTHOMAS is one of the most active and popular solo performers working in Central New York. His repertoire includes the songs of Elvis Costello, Tracy Chapman, U-2 and Bruce Springsteen, and original music. In 1989, he released a debut album of original music and performed with 10,000 Maniacs, The Replacements, and Melissa Etheridge. Booking: Feels So Good Productions, Inc., (716) 467-6420. Aug. 19.

Fullerton, Pa. native DANNY O'DONNELL has been playing the banjo for thirty-three years. His specialty is American traditional music, and he is accompanied by tuba and piano. O'Donnell, a friend and student of the late Eddie Peabody, "King of the Banjo" vaudeville headliner, has travelled the U.S. and Canada for the past thirty years. He performs in night clubs, theaters, banquets, conventions and as a vaudeville act on the burlesque circuit. Booking: Danny O'Donnell, (215) 282-3810. Aug. 25.

The Philadelphia-based band ONE ALTERNATIVE performs a fusion of musical styles including classical, jazz, folk and rock. Members are Peter Sittler and Mark Oppenlander, classical guitar, and Jill Haley, oboe and English horn. They recently signed a recording contract with TBA/Tall Tree Records and are recording a new album due out in September. The trio performs throughout the East Coast for enthusiastic audiences and has opened for such acts as Oregon, Spyro Gyra and Pentangle. Booking: Peter Sittler, (215) 436-7443. Aug. 26.

MARIE OSMOND made her public singing debut at the age of three, had her first hit record at thirteen, and co-starred in her own TV variety series at fifteen. In 1985, her first album for Capitol/Curb Records, There's No Stopping Your Heart, re-established her as a country star. The title song reached #1, and her duet with Dan Seals, "Meet Me In Montana," went to #1 and won a Country Music Association Award. Her second Capitol LP, I Only Wanted You, yielded another #1 duet, "You're Still New To Me," sung with Paul Davis. Her 1988 All In Love album continued her string of successes with duet partner Paul Davis on the hit single "Sweet Life." More recently, she has been collaborating with producer Jerry Crutchfield. Her latest

BARBARA PEARSON is a Bethlehem-based choreographer, dance teacher, consultant and community arts advocate. She teaches dance and movement, creating special cultural events and workshops in schools, colleges and community centers throughout Pennsylvania. She believes that children best appreciate and learn about music and the arts by participating. At Musikfest she will use her own blend of music, drama, group involvement and high-spirited fun to involve children in dance. Booking: Capriole School of Dance and Movement, (215) 866-0516. Aug. 23 and 24.

THE PENNSYLVANIA ALPINERS of Danville, Pa. have performed at many German festivals on the East Coast. The band features yodelers Dick Dorn and Alvera Lemon, a 12-foot alpenhorn, tuned cow bells, a singing saw, and carpenters chimes. The group's performances have been complimented by Bob Hope and other notables. The Alpiners were featured at the 1983 New York State Fair for the German-American Tricentennial. Booking: W. Martin Keller, (717) 275-5275. Aug. 19.

The Bethlehem community theater, THE PENNSYLVANIA PLAYHOUSE, presents selections from Bye Bye Birdie. The ensemble produces seven shows each year and has offered drama, comedy and musical theater to Lehigh Valley audiences since 1926. The hit rock musical, set in the time of Elvis Presley, involves a farewell celebration for teen star idol Conrad Birdie, leaving for the Army. The show is famous for such great songs as "Put On A Happy Face" and "One Boy." Booking: Pennsylvania Playhouse, (215) 435-2933. Aug. 19.

Allentown-based PENNSYLVANIA SINFONIA ORCHESTRA, founded and conducted by Dr. Allan Birney, will present a Candlelight Concert with Dana Muller and Gary Steigerwalt. The regional professional orchestra was begun in 1970 as the Camerata Orchestra. The ensemble is dedicated to chamber orchestra music of the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries and annually presents a five-concert subscription series and a three-concert summer baroque series called "Valley Vivaldi." Booking: Pennsylvania Sinfonia Orchestra, (215) 434-7811. Aug. 22.

The PENNSYLVANIA YOUTH THEATRE is a non-profit organization which originated in 1985 to provide opportunities for young people, ages 4-17, to participate in all aspects of theater. The young people take classes in creative drama and acting, participate in the presentation of plays and major musicals, and attend quality theater performances created by and for young people. Under the direction of Madeleine Ramsey, the children take classes from artist/teachers in acting, voice, creative movement and dance. This year they will present a musical theater review featuring students of Summer Stage '90 theater arts workshops. Booking: Pennsylvania Youth Theatre, (215) 865-9188. Aug. 19 and 20.

Since its inception in 1984, PHILADELPHIA BRASS has performed throughout eastern Pennsylvania. The ensemble's repertoire ranges five centuries from Renaissance to contemporary music. Members Pamela Frantz Emery, Lawrence Wright, Grant W. Moore II, Brian Kuszyk and Timothy J. The RICHARD REITER JAZZ QUINTET performs popular standards from the Swing Era, featuring vocalist Tricia Slasta, and contemporary compositions of Emmy Award-winning composer Richard Reiter. Standards include "You Made Me Love You," "As Time Goes By," "Blue Skies" and "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy." Some of Reiter's compositions from his albums Listener Friendly and Point Of No Return, recorded by his fusion group Crossing Point will also be performed. The quintet has appeared annually at Musikfest since 1987. Reiter who plays saxophones, clarinet and flute, has performed as a guest soloist with the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, and as back-up for Frank Sinatra, Tony Bennett and Nancy Wilson. Booking: Richard Reiter, (201) 857-2557. Aug. 26.

The RENWICK PLAYERS FLUTE ENSEMBLE is comprised of Lehigh Valley flutists, Suzanne Bleiler-Conrad, Kim Wesner-Seifert, Christina Brodt, Robin Dunstan, Vicky Garland and Amy Williams. Their repertoire ranges from classical works to popular tunes, including marches. Some of the members also play the piccolo. The ensemble has performed at area churches and Mayfair. Booking: Suzanne Bleiler-Conrad, (215) 867-9135. Aug. 18 and 26.

Ollie Krause, tuba; Mike Moll, trombone; Whitey Papillon, tenor banjo; Gerry Roth, trumpet; and Roger Tice, plectrum banjo originated the RIVERBOAT BANJO BAND twenty-seven years ago, because they enjoyed toe-tapping banjo music. The band plays songs from the Roaring Twenties, the Gay Nineties and older show tunes. During the summer, the band appears regularly at Dorney Park and the Spring Valley Inn. The group also performs at political rallies and private parties. Booking: Ollie Krause, (215) 433-7378. Aug. 22 and 24.

ROCKROOTS is a four-member band that includes Rick Levy and Dave Fry. The band traces the evolution of American popular music and rock 'n' roll. They demonstrate ethnic dance, blues, swing, rockabilly, Motown and current styles with songs by Ellington, Elvis, Chuck Berry and the Beatles. The ensemble has performed for thousands of students in the past few years, and students consider it the "best" assembly program at almost every school. Booking: Levy & Levy Associates, (215) 398-2686. Aug. 22, 23 and 25.

Singer/songwriter SALLY ROGERS performs traditional, contemporary and original ballads and songs, interwoven with stories taken from her life as a performer, wife and mother. She plays guitar and Appalachian dulcimer. Rogers has released seven albums, most on the Flying Fish label, including In the Circle of the Sun, Closing the Distance and Peace By Peace. She makes frequent appearances on public radio's A Prairie Home Companion and Mountain Stage. Booking: Joan Sherman Artist Management, (412) 323-9023. Aug. 25.

The MO ROLLAND-CRAIG POTTER DUO performs original music which is a fusion of funk, blues, jazz, and rhythm and blues. Rolland plays saxophone and wind synthesizer, and Potter plays piano and keyboards. For the past six years, the duo has performed extensively in the Poconos and in New York City. Rolland and Potter have been appearing at Musikfest annually since 1986. This year they will be joined by drummer Martin van Gastel from the Netherlands. Booking: Mo Rolland, (717) 476-0828. Aug. 21.

Jazz and blues are interpreted in a new way by the Netherlands-based, MO ROLLAND KWINTET, featuring JAN VERVEY which combines a fresh approach of Dutch musicians to American music. The group has been performing at festivals and in pubs for four years, but this will be their first U.S. appearance. They play a combination of blues and jazz music. The ensemble consists of Mo Rolland, saxophones, wind synthesizer, harmonica and vocals; Jan Verve, chromatic harmonica; Jacques van Harteveld, piano and keyboards; Joop de Man, bass; and Martin van Gastel, drums. Booking: Mo Rolland (717) 476-0828. Aug. 22 and 26.

He plays a unique amplified and electrically mixed combination of Hohner Marine Band Harmonica and a tiple, a stringed instrument manufactured by the C.F. Martin Guitar Company of Nazareth. Romann plays a variety of material from the 1890s to the 1940s. In 1989, he was a finalist in the Diatonic Harmonica Second World Harmonic Championship Competition in Trossingen, West Germany. Booking: John F. Romann, (215) 252-7259. Aug. 21.

RONALD MacDONALD will appear at Kinderplatz. Aug. 18.

The DAVE ROPER TRIO has performed in the Lehigh Valley for eighteen years. The trio is influenced by the easy listening music of Errol Garner and Oscar Peterson. They play traditional popular music, often in a jazz mode. The trio has produced two recordings. Members are Nick Diehm, drums; Roper, piano; and Charlie Siegfried, bass. Aug. 26.

Singer, songwriter DAVID ROTH, who Interface of Boston describes as "a cross between James Taylor and Jay Leno, Dan Fogelberg and David Letterman," has been performing for over ten years. He plays guitar and piano, and his repertoire includes pop and folk music. His songs include "Don't Should On Me And I Won't Should On You" and the a cappella "Manuel Garcia," his critically acclaimed tale of one man's battle with cancer. Roth was invited to sing "Earth" at the 40th Anniversary of the United Nations. He performs at many festivals, clubs and concerts across North America. He also leads music and creativity workshops at conferences, conventions and retreats. Most recently, he was musician-in-residence at New York's Omega Institute, one of the country's leading centers for Holistic Studies. Booking: David Roth, (213) 822-6255. Aug. 22.

The Knoxville, Tennessee-based duo of SPARKY AND RHONDA RUCKER has been performing together for almost two years. The Ruckers take their audience for an engaging exploration of folk songs, legends, folktales and history that intertwine to tell the story of American life. Sparky plays guitar, banjo and spoons, and Rhonda plays harmonica. Before he began performing with Rhonda, Sparky had a twenty-four-year solo career which produced six albums: A Magic Night, Drive Back the Night, A Home In Tennessee, Heroes and Hard Times, Cold And Lonesome On A Train and Bound To Sing The Blues. Their repertoire includes American traditional, blues, gospel and folk music. Booking: Rhonda Rucker, (615) 974-9408. Aug. 21 and 22.

MITCH RYDER, the godfather of Motor City rock 'n' roll, has been performing for over twenty-five years. Ryder, born Billy Levis, Jr., was known for his "blue-eyed soul." He worked with several groups before forming his own band, Billy Lee and the Riveras. When the band went to New York in 1964, they took the name "Mitch Ryder And The Detroit Wheels." The group recorded together for three years, then split. Ryder left the business for a while but has been performing again for the past few years. His current band, which features original

Shanachians

Sharon Sigal

Detroit Wheels drummer Johnny Badjenek, has been together for eleven years. Their repertoire includes all of Ryder's past hits such as "Devil with the Blue Dress On" and new material from his upcoming album. Booking: Variety Attractions, Inc., (614) 453-0394. Aug. 18.

The SADIE GREEN SALES RAGTIME JUGBAND is the duo of Timothy Walker and David Driskell. Walker plays a unique finger-picking guitar, banjo, musical saw, washtub bass, jugs, harmonica and vocals. Driskell, a classically trained clarinetist, is well known for his ability to play two at one time and for his fast and furious washboard playing. He also plays flute, saxophone, musical saw, banjo and vocals. The duo has entertained audiences throughout the Mediterranean for the U.S.O., and they have played several seasons in Great Britain at clubs and folk festivals. They have also appeared at festivals, fairs, schools and clubs. Their repertoire includes traditional American and jazz. Booking: "Sadie Green Sales," (717) 724-1428. Aug. 26.

The SALSAMBA LATIN JAZZ GROUP blends the traditions of American jazz with the spicy rhythms of Cuba, Puerto Rico, Africa and Brazil. The group's percussion is unusual for a jazz group because timbales and congas are used instead of a drum set, and a guitar is used instead of a piano. Instrumentation also includes saxophone, flute and bass. The group has opened for Latin jazz king Tito Puente, guitarists John Scofield and Stanley Jordan and flutist Dave Valentin. In 1989, the band was featured on National Public Radio's American Jazz Radio Festival, distributed to 120 affiliate stations nationwide.

Booking: Eric Susoeff, (412) 683-8439. Aug. 22.

The SAUCON SQUARE AND ROUND DANCERS have been dancing in the area for over 20 years. The group regularly appears at area events and meets each week at a Bethlehem church for dancing and instruction in square and round dancing. The troupe presents dance to contemporary and country and western music. Booking: Saucon Square and Round Dancers, (215) 252-6624. Aug. 20.

Classical pianist MARTHA SCHREMPER is a faculty member of Moravian College. She has been playing the piano since the age of four and is a principal keyboardist for the Lehigh Valley Chamber Orchestra. Schrempel is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Vassar College and received her master's degree from the Juilliard School, where she was a scholarship student of the late Rosina Lhevinne. She has performed as a soloist, accompanist, and chamber artist in Moravian Music Festivals, the Beethoven Festivals in Long Island, and at Musikfest. Schrempel recently performed in Antigua as a guest of the government during their Independence Day celebrations. Booking: Martha Schrempel, (215) 691-2809. Aug. 24.

The two-time Grammy-winning vocalist DIANE SCHUUR, a GRP recording artist, has become a frequent guest on Johnny Carson's Tonight Show. She participated in the 100th Birthday Concert for songwriter Irving Berlin at Carnegie Hall with Ray Charles, Willie Nelson and Frank Sinatra. She is considered by critics to be among the great song interpreters of our day, following in the tradition of Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, Sarah Vaughan, and Aretha Franklin, singing everything from jazz and pop to R&B. Schuur was blinded at birth by a hospital accident and found comfort in music. She has released five albums, Talkin' 'Bout You, Deedles, Schuur Thing, Timeless and Diane Schuur & The Count Basie Orchestra. This fall she'll tour Brazil, then re-join the Count Basie Orchestra for several dates out West, including a return to the Monterey Jazz Festival. Schuur will then join the Philip Morris Superband and begin a world-wide tour that begins in New York. Booking: Agency for the Performing Arts, (212) 582-1500. Aug. 24.

Bethlehem native THOM SCHUYLER writes songs exclusively for two publishing companies, DebDave/Briarpatch Music, Inc. and Writers Group/EMI Music, Inc. He has recorded three albums: Brave Heart as a solo artist on Capitol Records; SKO with J. Fred Knobloch and Paul Overstreet for MTM Records; and No Easy Horses with Knobloch and Craig Bickhardt for MTM Records. He has served two terms as President of the Nashville Songwriters Association, International and is completing his first term as a Composer Representative on the Board of Directors of the Country Music Association. Schuyler has received twelve BMI Writer Achievement Awards, five NSAI Songwriter Awards, two nominations as NSAI Songwriter of the Year and, one of his own songs, "16th Avenue," was a finalist at the 1983 CMA Awards. Booking: Thom Schuyler, (615) 665-9092. Aug. 26.

The JOHN SCULLY TRIO is led by John Scully, musical director at Tamiment Resort in the Poconos. As a pianist, conductor and composer, he has also performed in New York City at major night clubs, hotels and concert halls. He studied at the Juilliard School of Music and has appeared with Frank Sinatra and Peggy Lee. Within the past year, groups have performed several of his compositions at area colleges. The trio plays an aggressive, exciting style of jazz. Booking: John Scully, (717) 629-2291. Aug. 18.

The County Berks Irish band, SHANACHIANS, has been performing together since 1984. Their name comes from the Gaelic word for storyteller. Members are Chuck Barr, Ken Purcell and David "Mitch" Miller. Instrumentation includes guitar, keyboards, fiddle, mandolin and bodhran. The band's material ranges from soft, authentic ballads and airs to rebel songs, reels and twin fiddle jigs. Booking: Ken Purcell, (215) 262-3062. Aug. 25.

After a thirty-year absence from the music business, Artie Shaw returned in 1983 to actively supervise the ARTIE SHAW ORCHESTRA, under the direction of Dick Johnson. The band plays a combination of Shaw's past record hits such as "Frenesi," "Begin the Beguine" and "Stardust!" and new arrangements of tunes such as "Georgia" or a "Torgy and Bess" medley. The 17-piece ensemble is primarily a swing band. The orchestra features performers such as veteran clarinetist, Dick Johnson, and trumpet player, Keith Kostic. Booking: Thomas Cassidy Arts Management, Inc., (815) 338-9076. Aug. 18.

Singer/songwriter SHARON SIGAL has been appearing at coffeehouses, conferences, celebrations and demonstrations for several years. Her songwriting combines social, political and spiritual activities. In 1987, she released her first album of original contemporary and traditional songs titled January Sunbeam. She also leads workshops and makes presentations on "Songwriting and Social Change," "Composing the Song Within," "Liberating the Voice," and "Women In Music: A Feminist Perspective." Booking: Sharon Sigal, (215) 387-4942. Aug. 24.

The SILVER AND BRASS TROMBONE QUARTET has been performing Renaissance trombone music for ten years. The ensemble is dedicated to the performance of original trombone literature, yet its repertoire also includes music from

The U.S. NAVY STEEL BAND originated in San Juan, Puerto Rico, when the late Admiral Dan Gallery, enchanted with the sound of "steel" commanded his conventional Navy Band to learn to play the drums. As the band's skill developed and their repertoire grew, their popularity increased, creating a demand for them in the islands and in the United States. The steel drums originated on the island of Trinidad. Modern steel drums are carefully handmade refinements of early "pots and pans." The Navy Steel Band's drums are a combination of soprano pans (pongs), alto pans (double seconds), cello pans, tenor bass, and bass pans. Today's Navy Steel Band is based in New Orleans, Louisiana, and is comprised of experienced professional musicians with extensive background in conventional instrumental disciplines. The members are all active duty Navy musicians who travel to promote goodwill, aid Navy recruiting efforts, and provide musical ambassadorship. Booking: Naval Support Activity, (504) 361-2790. Aug. 21.

STUDENTS OF THE SUZUKI INSTITUTE AT MORAVIAN ACADEMY are directed by Constance Heim-Gehman, who is the director of the Suzuki Center of the Lehigh Valley. Institute students, ranging in age from 3-15 years, present a combined performance of violin, viola and cello music. The students performed at Musikfest the past four years. Aug. 18.

The LEHIGH VALLEY CHAPTER OF THE SWEET ADELINES is doing its part to "harmonize the world" with its renditions of tender ballads and Broadway showtunes in four-part harmony, barbershop style. No musical accompaniment is used. Performances are enhanced by choreography and costumes. The fifty member group, directed by Debbie Keretz, competes annually in regional contests between other chapters of the Sweet Adelines Inc., which numbers in excess of 33,000 internationally. Booking: Mary Yourgal, (215) 395-1268. Aug. 19.

SWINGING WITH THE STARS presents Kay Starr, Buddy DeFranco, The Four Freshmen and The Woody Herman Orchestra. Vocalist KAY STARR enjoys music of all types, but country music holds a special place in her heart because it tells a story. She has performed with the Grand Ole Opry and the Glenn Miller Orchestra. She was a regular guest on the Danny Thomas Show, travelled with the musical comedy Annie Get Your Gun, and starred in the movie, The Lord Don't Play Favorites. The FOUR FRESHMEN'S rise to success has been a steady and deliberate process. The group began in 1947 as freshmen at Butler University. Instead of starting their sophomore year, they went on the road. Since then, they have won every major music poll and appeared on every major campus in the United States. They recorded several albums including In Person, Road Show and The Four Freshmen Live At Butler University. Their album sales have reached the two million mark. BUDDY DEFranco is regarded as one of the greatest clarinetists in the history of jazz. He is the only instrumentalist to win 23 straight Down Beat critics' polls. DeFranco has made both concert and recording appearances with such stars as Billie Holiday, Nat Cole, Charlie Parker, Dizzy Gillespie, Stan Getz and Nelson Riddle. He has appeared on the Steve Allen Show, The Merv Griffin Show, and Johnny Carson's Tonight Show. THE WOODY HERMAN ORCHESTRA lives on under the direction of Frank Tiberi. Herman chose Tiberi as the orchestra's music director in 1987, when ill health forced the legendary big band leader to take a sabbatical. The 15-piece ensemble has continued to win critical acclaim and fresh new followers for their music. Booking: Thomas Cassidy Arts Management, Inc., (815) 338-9075. Aug. 22.

TAHYA presents DANSE ORIENTALE, with Troupe Bannat Tahya and Omar, captures the aura and mystique of Middle Eastern music and rhythms. She has successfully produced several dance events in Colorado and Pennsylvania, introducing audiences to a menagerie of Latin, Eastern and African dance. Tahya has contributed to the choreography of Muhlenberg Theatre's productions of Kismet and Candide. Bannat Tahya has performed at Lafayette College's "International Extravaganza", Mayfair, Good Shepherd's Annual Fun Fest and at Musikfest every year since 1984. Booking: Trisha MacCubbin, (215) 266-9021. Aug. 26.

TAINO is a New England-based group that returned to the States after a five-year tour through Central and South America and the Caribbean. Inspired by the rhythms and songs of the people they encountered, the trio has developed a unique style of Anglo-Latin folkloric jazz. Blending their voices with a mixture of exotic native instruments, members Sana Ostheimer Nickel, Lloyd T. Williams III and Gary "Papo" Nickel encourage positive cultural exchange between all peoples. Booking: Marge Ghilarducci Agency, (508) 822-3735. Aug. 22.

TATRA SLOVAK FOLK GROUP originated in Bethlehem in 1977 and is affiliated with the S.S. Cyril and Methodius Parish Church. The group consists of twenty-two members, who wear authentic Slovak costumes and perform songs and dances from their homeland in central Europe. The goal of the group is to preserve Slovak heritage and culture. One of their most memorable engagements was performing at the Statue of Liberty. Booking: Mary Stofanek, (215) 866-7593. Aug. 19.

Formed in 1961, this legendary group has helped define Motown sound and inspired many of today's popular musicians. THE TEMPTATIONS, some of whose fourteen classic #1 pop, R&B hits include: "My Girl," "The Way You Do The Things You Do," "Just My Imagination," "Papa Was a Rolling Stone" and "Get Ready," will perform for the first time at Musikfest. Members are Ron Tyson, Richard Street, Ali Ollie Woodson, and mainstays Melvin Franklin and Otis Williams. The group has numerous gold and platinum records to its credit; it won three Grammys and many other honors. Rolling Stone Illustrated History of Rock & Roll stated, "The Temptations, quite simply, stood out as the finest vocal group in sixties soul; they could out-dress, out-dance and out-sing any competition in sight." Although the band's look may have changed over the years, their unique vocal and choreographed style hasn't. Booking: William Morris Agency, (212) 586-5100. Aug. 20.

AILEEN & ELKIN THOMAS, a husband and wife duo from Texas, play and sing original country folk music. The two have recorded as studio Musicians with artists such as Leonard Cohen, Pete Seeger, and Waylon Jennings and have appeared on the Nashville Network and National Public Radio. They have released three albums, Aileen & Elkin Thomas, Arise, We Must Be Growing and The Journey. They have appeared at many festivals and colleges throughout the country and have toured the South Pacific. Booking: Shantih Publishing & Productions, (817) 466-9051. Aug. 25 and 26.

"One," "Easy To Be Hard," "Celebrate," "Mama Told Me Not To Come," and "Old Fashioned Love Song" are a few of the hits for which THREE DOG NIGHT is famous. Their albums include Three Dog Night, Suitable For Framing, Golden Biscuits, Harmony and Cyan. The band has recorded fourteen gold albums and nine gold singles. The band features founding members Cory Wells and Danny Hutton on lead vocals and Jimmy Greenspoon, original keyboardist. Michael Cunio, lead guitar; Richard Campbell, bass; and Mike Keeley, drums, have joined the group since it re-formed in 1981, after a six-year hiatus. The band toured extensively until 1975, breaking attendance records in venues ranging from concert halls to football stadiums. Hutton formed a management/booking agency and booked bands such as the "The Go-Go's" and "X." Recently, he recorded two songs for motion picture soundtrack albums "Wouldn't It Be Good" for Pretty In Pink and "Brand New Day" for American Flyers. Wells is a field editor for Outdoor Life, writes articles for various sporting publications, and appears on various television shows. Booking: ICM, (213) 273-5256. Aug. 19.

TIMLIN & KANE have been playing Irish traditional and contemporary folk music together for sixteen years. Gerry Timlin grew up in County Tyrone, Ireland. Tom Kane is a native of Philadelphia. They have performed, by special request, for Governor Robert Casey at his Inauguration and have shared the stage with The Clancy Brothers, Robbie O'Connell, Makem and Clancy, and the Dubliners. For their Musikfest performance, they are joined on stage by JOHN LIONARONS, a vocalist and performer on the hammered dulcimer, guitar, accordion and mandolin. His repertoire of over 250 songs encompasses Celtic and American ballads and dance tunes. As a trio, they have performed together for eight years and have released an album, Ships in Full Sail, which features instrumentals and Irish folk songs. This is the group's fourth appearance at Musikfest. Booking: Gerry Timlin, (215) 278-9312. Aug. 21.

The JOLLY JOE TIMMER ORCHESTRA plays Polish, German and Slovenian music. Timmer, a well-known Lehigh Valley polka band leader, radio and television host, started his musical career after high school graduation in 1948. He plays drums in his group and composes polka tunes. The band has played at the International Polka Association Convention in Chicago. Timmer owns a recording company, a Bethlehem music store and a polka music grove in Bath, Pa. He was elected to the IPA Polka Music Hall of Fame for 1990. Booking: Joe Timmer, (215) 865-1941. Aug. 22.

TOUCHSTONE THEATRE is a Bethlehem-based ensemble which has delighted audiences in fourteen states, Europe and Mexico, with its original performances for adults and children. New for the 1990 season is the group's performance of the classic fairy tale Rumpelstiltskin. Booking: Touchstone Theatre, (215) 867-1689. Aug. 21 and 22.

The Allentown-based DANNY TRIESTE BAND has been performing together for twenty-one years. The band plays a combination of big band, European, Latin, and polka music. Instrumentation includes accordion, synthesizer, guitar, drums, saxophone and trumpet. They have appeared at Musikfest previously. Booking: Danny Trieste, (215) 437-2735. Aug. 19.

Pat Drain and Suzanne Clark, also known as TRILLIUM, have been performing classical jazz in the New England area for the past four years. The duo has a unique and distinct jazz sound and repertoire that includes creative interpretations of jazz standards, swing tunes, bossa novas and blues. Drain, originally from the Lehigh Valley, plays guitar; Clark plays bass. Both add their voices to the sound. Trillium just released its first album, All the Night's Magic. Booking: Pat Drain, (508) 747-0275. Aug. 24.

TUCKERS' TALES PUPPET THEATRE is a Delaware Valley-based performing company, a division of Puppet Perceptions, Inc., a non-profit arts and education corporation. Co-directors Marianne and Tom Tucker have performed at puppet, folk, and street festivals, theaters, and craft fairs throughout the country. Some recent appearances include Philadelphia Folk Festival, Mostly Renaissance Puppet Festival, New England Puppetry Series, and Charlotte Children's Theatre. The troupe will present "Mime Your Own Business," a non-verbal collection of hilarious, unpredictable events. Booking: Tuckers' Tales Puppet Theatre, (215) 885-7073. Aug. 20.

LOS VALENTINOS, a group of Puerto Rican natives now living in the Lehigh Valley, has been performing together for five years. The group features Raymond Sanabria, lead guitar; Nelson Sanabria, bass guitar; Ricky Sullivan, timbales; George Sullivan, congas; Adrian Ortiz, bongos; and Jesus Manuel Reyes, vocals. The music of Los Valentinos is primarily Latin dance rhythms from the Caribbean: the guajira and salsa from Cuba, the balero from Puerto Rico, and the merengue from Santo Domingo. The group likes to share its music and rhythms and invites everyone to dance. Booking: Lou Ortiz, (215) 691-5078. Aug. 19.

RICHARD VAN AUKEN is an artist-teacher in Bethlehem's Moravian College Music Department. He has been a visiting instructor at Lafayette in Easton. Van Auker began piano and organ instruction at an early age and has spent many years in the capacity of organist and choir director. He teaches workshops, maintains a private teaching practice and performs regularly as a soloist and accompanist on piano and organ. Van Auker has recorded an album of organ music for WFB Productions, performed on radio and television, and written several articles for music teacher's periodicals. Booking: Richard Van Auker, (215) 536-3093. Aug. 23.

The jazz/fusion band VITAL LINK is Charlie Barebo, saxophones, flute and synthesizer; Gary Maiatico, keyboards; Duane Martis, drums; Glenn Ott, tenor sax and percussion; Brian Parker, guitar; and Mitch Shelly, bass. The band has been together for five years and has appeared at Musikfest since 1988. The group plays modern jazz/fusion and is proud of its toe-tapping music. Booking: Charles Barebo, (215) 965-6018. Aug. 23 and 25.

MELANIE WAGNER-JOHNSON has twenty-eight years of training and experience in dancing, baton twirling, modeling, singing and acting. Operating the Melanie Wagner Academy of Dance, Inc., she is a director of the Christmas City Angels Parade Corp., and is affiliated with a number of professional education and dance organizations. At Musikfest, she teaches children dances, songs, games and the infamous Chicken Dance. Booking: Melanie Wagner-Johnson, (215) 865-0145. Aug. 20, 21 and 22.

TERRY WALDO'S GOTHAM CITY JAZZ BAND is an all-star lineup of New York's finest traditional jazz and studio musicians. These versatile performers play everything from the dance hits of the '20s to the intricate scores for vintage silent movies and vaudeville orchestrations. The group is led by Waldo, a protege of Eubie Blake. Waldo, known for his authentic ragtime and early jazz, has made hundreds of television appearances and produced over twenty record albums. Booking: Stanley Weinstein, (212) 860-9552. Aug. 19.

The highly acclaimed folk ensemble, THE WASHINGTON SQUARES, bring their message of social conscience to Musikfest. The group originated in New York City in 1983 with members Tom Goodkind, Bruce Paskow and Lauren Agnelli. They perform in the beatnik garb of the '50s, but their folk music has been updated with electric guitars to create what they call "Rock Folk—folk music played loudly." Their self-titled first album was nominated for a 1988 Grammy, and their second album is titled Fair and Square. They have opened for Billy Crystal, Joan Jett, Belinda Carlisle and The Beach Boys. They were the first folk group to appear on MTV. Booking: American Famous Talent Corp., (312) 440-1900. Aug. 21.

JAMIE WATSON has been performing for twenty-five years, having gotten his start with the internationally acclaimed American Boychoir. He sings and accompanies himself on six-string guitar, five-string banjo, and button accordion. Watson is a member of Spare Change and The Ambler Ramblers, and he frequently appears with fiddler Rik Bourne as the duo Necktie Party. He recently completed a ten-week US tour. Booking: Jamie Watson, (215) 789-7824. Aug. 22.

The JOE WEBER ORCHESTRA will present performances at Festplatz. Aug. 18 and 20.

KEVIN WELCH may be a new name to country music fans, but they've been enjoying his songs for years. As a song-writer from Nashville, Welch has written hits like "I Wish She Wouldn't Treat You That Way" for The Judds, "Velvet Chains" for Gary Morris, "Too Old To Die Young" for Moe Bandy and "Desperately" for Don Williams. Welch recently began performing his own songs, which he describes as "Revved up Bluegrass without all the bluegrass instruments." He is currently working on an album with Warner Brothers. Booking: Arne Brav Associates, (615) 371-0021. Aug. 23.

Classical guitarist TED WILLIAMS has been performing with chamber orchestras for twenty years. He has appeared throughout the U.S. and in the Caribbean Islands and has been featured soloist with the Concerto Soloists of Philadelphia and the Pennsylvania Sinfonia Orchestra. Williams is also an accomplished teacher of the classical guitar, having served on the faculties of several colleges and universities including Temple University, Moravian College, and Muhlenberg College. His repertoire ranges from 16th century lute works, which he studies from the original tablatures, through contemporary compositions for guitar. Booking: Ted Williams, (215) 966-5677. Aug. 23.

From the heart of the Shenandoah Valley, Staunton, Virginia, WINDFALL has been performing together for five years. This contemporary folk group consists of Kay Buchanan, vocals, guitar and keyboards; Sarah Cheverton, vocals, guitar and flute; Marc Taylor, vocals, guitar and mandolin; and Kevin Walsh, vocals, guitar, bass and trumpet. Windfall has toured the United States and Canada. In addition, they have released two albums, Windfall and Home in the Morning. Booking: Kevin Walsh, (703) 885-0636. Aug. 18.

THE WOOD'S TEA COMPANY originated over ten years ago in northern Vermont. The trio mixes rousing sea shanties, Irish melodies, haunting melodies and plenty of humor in its performances. Group members Mike Lussen, Bruce Morgan and Rusty Jacobs all sing and play over a dozen instruments, including banjo, guitar, bouzouki, concertina, bodhran and tin whistles. They have toured extensively, performing at a combination of concerts, coffeehouses, festivals, pubs and colleges. They have also released three albums. Booking: Rusty Jacobs, (802) 644-2155. Aug. 20.

If you are looking for a different kind of entertainment to captivate and delight you, TOM YURASITS, a magician and comedian, is the performer for you. A teacher, magic consultant and producer of shows, Yurasits has performed in eighteen of the fifty states. His shows are filled with fun, excitement and comedy for children and adults and involve audience participation. Yurasits has been performing for the past eighteen years and has intrigued audiences at Musikfest for the past three years. Booking: Tom Yurasits, (215) 262-0229. Aug. 20 and 23.

Muralplatz Artists

GABLE YOUNG, formerly Kathy Gable, received her BFA from Philadelphia College of Art, and a certificate of painting from the Pennsylvania Academy of The Fine Arts. She is currently working on her MFA in art education at Kutztown University.

Young has exhibited in the Philadelphia and Lehigh Valley areas.

Her organically styled clay panels are on exhibit through the month of August at Open Space Gallery in Allentown.

She will be opening the Gable Young Clay Works, a teaching studio, in Hellertown this fall.

Young is featured at Muralplatz on Saturday, August 18.

GRACE WINROW, born and raised in Hazlet, N.J., received her BFA from Moravian College. She later studied with Myron Barnstone in Coplay, Pa., eventually working as his assistant in teaching adult and children painting and drawing.

Inspired by the landscapes of her current residence in Howell, N.J., she chooses to work on location out of doors.

Her mural will deal with the heritage of the American people, a combination of cultures and races.

Winrow will be exhibiting at the Gafran Gallery, 532 Main St., Bethlehem, during Musikfest.

Winrow is featured at Muralplatz on Sunday, August 19.

GEORGE W. MENGELSON, pseudonym GEME, has been yielding the brush for about half a century. He works primarily in acrylics, but has also pursued the craft with water colors, stained glass and sculpture.

He is a prolific sketcher who over the years has made nearly 100 sketches of Musikfest.

GEME is a former president and life member of the Allied Artists of Johnstown, Pa.

He has exhibited with the Associated Artists of Pittsburgh,

The Lehigh Art Alliance and The Bethlehem Palette Club. He has also had many one-man shows, has painted several murals, and has written and produced television programs on art for WJAC-TV of Johnstown.

Mengelson is featured at Muralplatz on Monday, August 20.

Bethlehem native JACK WEINPERL is a self-taught artist. Majoring in realism, he has exhibited works throughout Pennsylvania, at Mayfair '89 and at the Four Corners Gallery in Lambertville, N.J. He had solo exhibitions at Allentown City Hall and Bethlehem's Town Hall Rotunda.

Weinperl's advertising banners and murals for Christmas Club-A Corp. were displayed at local banks and throughout the states.

He has received many awards from Bethlehem's Sidewalk Art Show, Allentown's West Park, the Bethlehem Palette Club and other juried shows. He is a member of the Bethlehem Palette Club, Doylestown Art League, Pocono Mountains Art Group, and the Paint Box Club.

His mural will salute the musical enjoyment of Bethlehem's great event.

Weinperl is featured at Muralplatz on Tuesday, August 21.

ROBERT WILLIAMS is a graphic designer/illustrator who has served a wide variety of regional, national and international companies.

His client list includes Air Products and Chemicals, Inc., American Baptist Churches USA, Christian Family Magazine of London, England, Grosset & Dunlap, HealthEast, and L A Graphics.

His paintings have won several awards and have been seen in the Allentown Art Museum and the L.B.A.A. Art Gallery in New York City. He resides in Allentown.

Williams is featured at Muralplatz on Wednesday, August 22.

MARGARET S. SENTZ, water colorist, has been painting since 1977. She has studied locally with Fred Bees, Chet Ryder and Lee Everett at the Baum School of Art, Allentown.

She has had several one-person exhibitions in Bethlehem's Town Hall Rotunda, Allentown College of St. Francis de Sales and Penn State's Allentown Campus.

Her award-winning paintings are found in private and industrial collections in the United States, Japan, Spain, Germany, Brazil and Chile.

She is best known for her paintings of local historic buildings and for home portraits.

Sentz is past president of the Bethlehem Palette Club. A graduate of St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing, she chose an historic hospital scene as her mural theme.

Sentz is featured at Muralplatz on Thursday, August 23.

SALMA ARASTU is an artist from India with Post Diploma in Fine Arts from MS University, Baroda, India.

Her expressionistic oil paintings explore the energy manifest in nature. Her brilliant palette captures both the perennial movement in nature and the fleeting moments of human experience.

She has traveled extensively from India to the Middle East, London and the United States. She has had solo shows in major cities of India, Kuwait and Iran. Last year she had four solo shows in the Lehigh Valley.

For Musikfest, her mural will depict the heritage of music and dance from India.

Arastu is featured at Muralplatz on Friday, August 24.

KEITH J. VOGRIN received a BFA with a concentration in drawing and painting from the Pennsylvania State University.

While in college, he founded, was vice president for and assisted in writing the constitution for the Art Students' League of Penn State. He also had various art pieces displayed in the university's Visual Arts Building, Chambers Building and the Central Pattee Library.

Vogrin has displayed works in the Bethlehem Sidewalk Art Show and at Mayfair '89. Presently his work may be seen at Leah's-The Gallery, in Allentown.

He is currently employed by R&S Printers, Northampton, as a graphic designer.

Vogrin is featured at Muralplatz on Saturday, August 25.

MICHAEL SHIVELY of Musselman Advertising, Inc. designed the 1990 Musikfest poster. He is a graduate of the Philadelphia College of Art and holds a BA in illustration.

As a student, he traveled to Europe, where he participated in an independent study program to further strengthen his illustration techniques and personal style.

He has been with Musselman for over two years. He works primarily as a designer and illustrator, but also lends his expertise in the areas of photography, slide presentation and retouching.

He will paint a rendition of the Musikfest '90 poster.

Shively is featured at Muralplatz on Sunday, August 26.

Museums and Galleries

The Bethlehem Area Chamber of Commerce Visitors Center
459 Old York Road, 2nd floor of Luckenbach Mill (Broad and Guetter Streets during December only), 215 / 868-1513 or 867-3788

Visitors' information is available; free maps, brochures and calendars of events. A booklet for a self-guided walking tour of the historic area is nominally priced. Post cards, posters, prints, mugs, license plates, and other "Bethlehem" souvenirs are also sold.

18th Century Industrial Area

Entrances: Main Street and Ohio Road; South Main and Spring Streets; or Old York Road off Union Boulevard, 215 / 691-5300

Within a few years after Bethlehem's founding, the Moravian settlers had developed an industrial complex of 32 crafts and trades along the banks of the Monocacy Creek. Today, in this unusual ten acre area, guides in early Moravian dress explain the tanning process, and show visitors the reconstructed operating mechanisms in the 1762 Waterworks, considered the first municipal water-pumping system in the American Colonies. Visitors may view special exhibits and craft demonstrations during Musikfest between noon and 8 PM, daily. The Luckenbach Mill will feature "Pull up a Chair," a contemporary chair exhibition. The Tannery will feature "The Changing Face of the Industrial Area." An 18th Century Industrial Area tour is available between noon and 4 PM, daily. Admission.

1810 Goundie House

501 Main Street, 215 / 691-6055

The Federal-style home of John Sebastian Goundie, a prominent Moravian brewer in early 19th century Bethlehem, was probably the first brick residence on Main Street. Visitors can learn about Goundie and his family from the furnished North Rooms. Admission. Musikfest hours are 11 AM to 6 PM, daily. Historic Bethlehem Inc's museum shop remains open until 6 PM during Musikfest.

Kemerer Museum of Decorative Arts

427 N. New Street, 215 / 868-6868

A mid-nineteenth century townhouse with period rooms displaying Colonial and Victorian era furniture, oriental rugs, Bohemian glass, Lehigh Valley landscapes and tall case clocks. Exhibits include the works of Cullen Yates: American impressionist. Yates was born in 1866 in a small town in Ohio. He studied in Paris and was a member of the National Academy. His work was hung in the White House and in the National Museum of American Art. An outside annex houses a firematic collection, including a 1698 hand pump fire engine. Guided tours. Musikfest hours are 1 PM-5 PM daily. Admission.

Frank and Seba Payne Gallery

Moravian College, Church Street Campus, 215 / 861-1675

The Payne Gallery is located in the Center for Music and Art on the Church Street Campus of Moravian College. Exhibitions at the Payne Gallery address the historical traditions of the college and community as well as contemporary issues in the visual arts. Free. Musikfest hours are 11 AM to 8 PM, Monday through Sunday.

Moravian Museums and Tours

66 W. Church Street, 215 / 867-0173

The Museum is housed in the Gemeinhaus built in 1741, the oldest building in Bethlehem. Early Moravian furniture, clocks, silver, musical instruments, religious articles, and Seminary art and needlework are featured and interpreted in guided tours. The Moravian Community Tour is available for groups of 10 or more by appointment only. Admission. Musikfest hours are 11 AM to 5 PM, except for Sunday hours of 1 PM to 5 PM.

Apothecary Museum

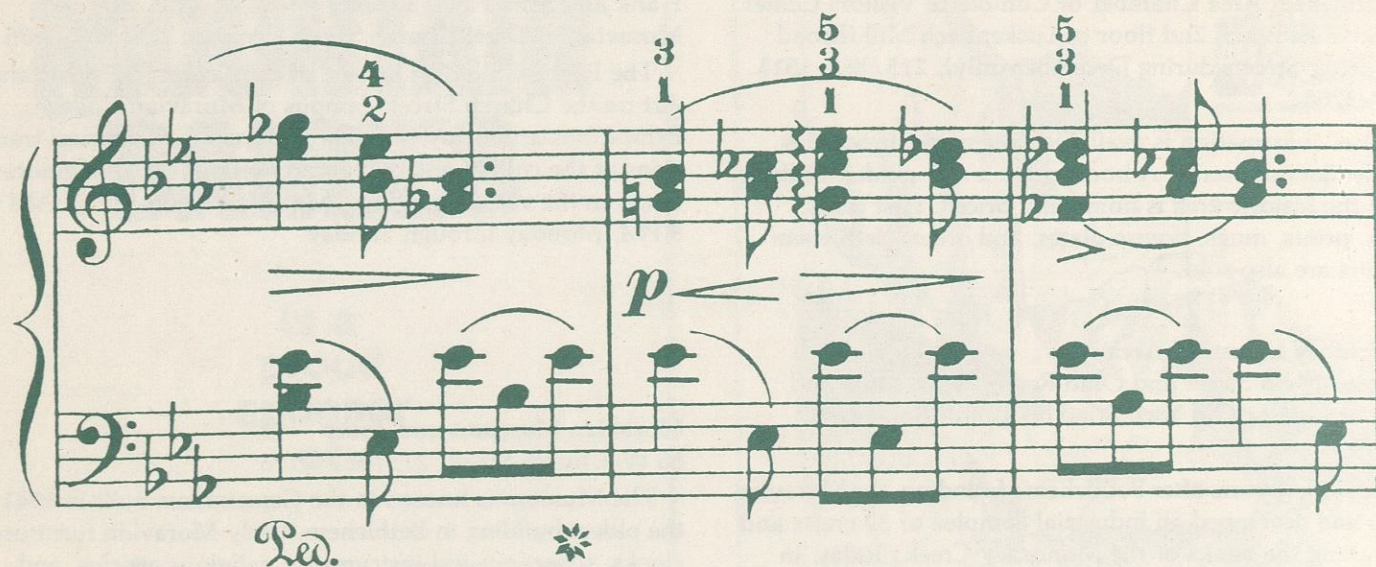

Rear 420 Main Street, 215 / 867-0173

Set back from Main Street, with an entry gate next to the Moravian Book Shop, is the Apothecary Museum. Featured are retorts, grinders, mortars and pestles, scales, blown glass bottles, labels, a set of Delft jars (1743), and the original fireplace (1752) where prescriptions were compounded. Admission. Musikfest hours are 1 PM to 4 PM.

Sun Inn

564 Main Street, 215 / 866-1758

Constructed in 1758, the Sun Inn stands as a living symbol of Bethlehem's hospitality to travelers during the early years of our nation's history. During the American Revolution, the Sun Inn was honored by the presence of many of the founders of our nation. The restored inn is open to the public and visitors may tour the structure with interpretive guides. Admission. Musikfest hours are 11 AM to 6 PM. The inn is also open for lunch and dinner, and Musikfest hours for the adjacent gift shop are 10 AM to 10 PM daily, except Sundays, which are noon to 10 PM.

We also have an ear for banking.

Why is Meridian a Principal Sponsor of Musikfest '90?

We helped create Musikfest, and we continue to support this major cultural tourism event. It's a part of our community relations program aimed at economic development.

Come and enjoy over 575 free performances from Bach to bluegrass at Musikfest '90, August 18-26 in the historic district of Bethlehem, Pa. There'll be international foods and beverages, special performances for children, and fun-filled times for the whole family.

We not only contribute our financial resources to Musikfest — we contribute our human resources, too. Many Meridian employees are among the volunteers working at all levels to make Musikfest '90 a tremendous success.

We're committed to the economic well-being of Bethlehem, the Lehigh Valley and the 12-county eastern Pennsylvania area we serve, and we're proud to be a founding and principal sponsor of Musikfest. We congratulate Meridian officers Barbara Lampe and Ron Donchez for their election to the board of directors of Musikfest.
