Captain Snyder
Takes Florida
Girl As Bride

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Snyder, formerly of 518 West Union Boulevard and now residing in Allentown, announced the marriage of their son, Captain Andrew Jackson Snyder, to Carolyn Van Landingham, of Daytona Beach, Fla., which took place September 2. The Rev. Lewis N. Head officiated at the double ring ceremony in Community Methodist parsonage in the presence of family and friends. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. James Donald Price, aunt of the bride, attended her and M. S. Stroud was best man.

Mrs. Snyder was graduated from Covington County High School, Florala, Ala., in the class of '38 and from the Grady Hospital School of Nursing, Atlanta, Ga., in August, 1942. Captain Snyder is a graduate of Liberty High School, Bethlehem, in 1938, and of Penn State College, in 1940, with a B. S. in civil engineering. He entered the Army in June, 1941, and at present is engineering officer at Kissimmee Army Air Base, Kissimmee, Fla.
