MISS DORIS MEADE, NURSE

~~FEB 6 1943~~
Couple Married in Phillipsburg
Lutheran Church Saturday.

Doris Meade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Meade, East Orange, N. J., formerly of Phillipsburg, became the bride of Sergeant Robert L. Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rice, 2014 Hanover Avenue, Allentown (Rittersville section), formerly of Bethlehem, Saturday at 4 p. m. in the Lutheran Church at Phillipsburg.

Mrs. Betty Ripple was matron of honor, and Bertram Meade, best man, both of Phillipsburg. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bridegroom, formerly a well known athlete at Bethlehem High School, Staunton Military Academy and Pennsylvania State College, is serving with the Ferry Command of the U. S. Army Air Forces.

He won varsity letters in football, basketball and track at Bethlehem High School before graduation in 1937. He attended Staunton for two years and won letters in the same three sports there. He was captain of the football team during the 1938 season. Subsequently he attended Penn State for two years, playing on the varsity football and lacrosse teams there. He was a member of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity.

In July, 1941, he enlisted in the air forces and was sent to Scott Field, Ill. to attend radio operators' school. After graduating he was assigned to the Ferry Command at Albuquerque, N. M. His home base is at Memphis, Tenn.

His bride is a graduate of Phillipsburg High School and Bellevue Hospital School of Nursing in New York City. She has been head nurse in the operating room of Orange Memorial Hospital at East Orange, N. J.

She accompanied her husband to Memphis for a month's stay and possibly may take up permanent residence there.
