

Kametz, George T.

AMONG YOUNGEST

8-25-1942 IN HIS CLASS

Master Sergeant George T. Kametz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen C. Kametz, of 510 East Fifth Street, has the distinction of being one of the youngest in his class to hold this rating. He was promoted to his new rank on August 21. His duties include that of Sergeant Major in regimental headquarters where he is assistant to the Adjutant. He will leave for Texas some time this month to take over his new duties. He has spent most of his year of service in Fort Bliss, Texas, being inducted on June 28, 1941, before being sent to Philadelphia where he is now stationed.
