

De Fulvio, Camillo

Gets Purple Heart

MAR 6 1944

Cpl. Camillo De Fulvio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carmine De Fulvio, 630 Hayes Steet, was wounded in action on January 7. The parents are now in possession of the Purple Heart. Cpl. De Fulvio asked one of the Army nurses to send the Purple Heart home to his mother. Early this week the family had word from the War Department that Cpl. De Fulvio was improving normally and is still at a hospital base somewhere in Italy.
