

Noble, Anthony

Army Man Takes Bride

APR 9 1943

The marriage of Miss Lorraine A. Christman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Christman of Stockertown and Pvt. Anthony Noble, son of Mrs. Wallace Uhl, of 72 North Seventh st., Easton, took place at 9 o'clock last evening in the living room of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Uhl.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Luther A. Gruver, pastor of Salem Evangelical Lutheran church. The couple was attended by Miss Josephine DiNardo and Joseph Torcivia.

The bride wore a gown of light blue taffeta, princess style, and a corsage of gardenias. The maid of honor wore a pink taffeta gown, princess style, with a net skirt and taffeta bodice, and a corsage of roses.

A reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's mother and wards, the couple left on a wedding trip. The bride will live at the home of the bridegroom's mother for the duration. Guests were present from Stockertown, Bethlehem, Allentown, Phillipsburg and Easton.

A former pupil of the Stockertown schools, the bride is employed by the Magnetic Winding Company. The bridegroom attended Easton high school, where he was active in athletics. A former employe of the Giant Market, Pvt. Noble is a member of the Coast Artillery at Fort Moultrie S. C. He has been in service for five months, and is on leave.

APR 9 1943

April 9, 1943