

Why, Robert M. Van

Wins First Stripe

Pfc. Robert M. Van Why, Army Air Base, Kearns, Utah, returned to his base today after spending an emergency leave of 20 days with his wife and infant son, Robert Jr.

Pfc. Van Why was promoted to first class just before leaving camp and expects to be transferred to an army training school after his return. He made the return trip to Chicago via United Air Lines. His wife, the former Gloria Raines, resides at 254 West Fairview Street, city.

June 25, 1943