

Christein, John E,
Lewis

Local Marine Ready
For More Action 9 1943

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Christein, High Street, received word from one of their sons in the South Pacific, Pfc. John E. Christein, USMC, that he had been slightly wounded early in July and was discharged from the hospital on July 24.

He stated he picked up twenty pounds in weight since he was hospitalized and that he wants to get back into action again. He is also anxious to meet his brother, Sgt. Lewis Christein a veteran of Guadalcanal, also a Marine, who is stationed somewhere nearby.
