

Clayton, William C.

11 Local Men Enlist in Navy

Eleven local applicants forwarded for final physical examination and enlistment, were found acceptable and sworn into the Navy this week, according to a report from the recruiting station in Allentown Post Office Building.

The new recruits are William C. Clayton, R. D. 2; Charles A. Tertusek, 820 Itaska St., this city; James E. Miller, 2220 Tilghman St.; Richard McLaughlin, 210 Ridge Ave.; Allen H. Kutzler, 125 West Long St., and Rudolph Himmler, 176 Oak St., Allentown; Allen F. Sassa, 222 Spruce St., and Donald Hartzell, R. D. 1, Walnutport; Joseph E. Stangl, 962 Washington St., Northampton; Thomas L. Gangawere, 1030 Detweiler Ave., Hellertown, and Harold Nolf, 477 Line St., Easton.

All enlistments were for two year periods with the exception of Gangawere of Hellertown, who enlisted for four years. He previously served three years and three months in the Navy and was enlisted as motor machinist's mate 2/C.

February 18, 1946