

Sacks, Gerald F.

Former Bethlehemite, Home From War, Has Delayed Yule Dinner

AOM3/C Gerald L. Sacks, former resident of Bethlehem, is spending a well-earned rest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin E. Sacks, Perkaspie.

The youth has seen considerable active duty throughout the European area. He has been hospitalized several times for injuries received when torpedoed in the Atlantic Ocean.

AOM3/C Sacks holds the coveted Gold and Silver Navy Air Corps Crew Wings and is a member of a unit awarded a citation for "sinking a Nazi submarine."

"Jerry" and his family enjoyed a delayed Christmas dinner on his return home. Present for the occasion were his 82-year-old grandmother, Mrs. M. H. Sacks; Miss E. F. Spear, this city; Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor, Sellersville; Ruth Kline, Helen Leonard, Gerald, Jean and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Sacks.