

Nemes, Emery Jim

GLOBE-TIMES WORKER TENDERED A FAREWELL

NOV 10 1942
Emery Nemes, Composing Room
Worker, to Join Armed Forces.

Globe-Times employes Monday night tendered a farewell dinner and party to another colleague who leaves Wednesday to serve with the armed forces.

The departing employe, Emery "Jim" Nemes, Madison Avenue, had been employed in the newspaper composing room for the past several months.

The dinner party took place at the Fountain Hill American Legion Home, with both employes and executives of the company in attendance. Nemes was tendered a gift by Lessels Geissinger, who acted as toastmaster.

Remarks were offered by representatives of various departments of the newspaper, including Frank G. Hoch, Ellis Service, Raymond Rabenold, Frank Birk, Henry Kohler and E. M. Haas.

Bernard Radle, another of the Globe-Times workers in the armed forces, who was home on furlough, spoke briefly. After the dinner and program a social hour was enjoyed.

November 10, 1942