

Smith, LeRoy L.

With Repair Unit At French Depot

Performing intricate repair work on hundreds of vehicles assigned to four assembly area deployment camps in the Soisson sub-area in northeastern France is the present assignment of the 3419th Ordnance Medium Automotive Maintenance Company of which Cpl. LeRoy L. Smith, this city, is a member.

Veterans of four campaigns, the ordnance men landed on Omaha Beach on June 24, 1944, and were a part of the First Army Base Maintenance Battalion.

For their overall contribution to the maintenance of combat vehicles, the 3419th was awarded stars for the Normandy, Northern France, Rhineland and Central Europe campaigns.
