

Wida, Andrew!

Slovak Lutheran Men On Furlough

Two service men of St. John's Slovak Lutheran Church are home on furlough this week-end. Pvt. Andrew Wida, who has been at Camp Hood, Texas, and Fort Sill, Okla., for the past months, with the Tank Destroyer Divisions, arrived Wednesday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wida, East Sixth Street. - SEP 25 1943

Joseph Yamnicky, A. S., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yamnicky, First Avenue, Hellertown, a former member of the board of trustees of the local church, arrived home Monday, after a training period at the Naval Training Station at Bainbridge, Md. He awaits orders for sea duty upon his return.

Recently, Lt. Joseph Tomanchik, son of Mrs. Anna Tomanchik, Second Avenue, Hellertown, gladdened the heart of his mother by a visit home, as did Pvt. Paul Kolesar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kolesar, of Jennings Street, who visited with his parents after leaving Parris Island, for further training with the Marine Air Corps at the training station at Memphis, Tenn.
