

Repsher, Thomas

RETURNS TO POST TODAY.

Thomas Repsher, 125 East Elizabeth Avenue, son of the deceased first commander of Post No. 855, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the first son of the post to enter the nation's armed forces in the present war, will return to the camp in Arkansas where he is stationed with the U. S. army tonight at the close of a ten day furlough he spent here visiting friends and relatives, he announced Monday evening during a visit at the post home.
