S/Sgt. Robert Kooker Serves in Mail Room

S/Sgt. Robert G. Kooker, Quakertown, a former platoon leader in the 134th Regiment of the 35th Infantry Division, temporarily is serving in the mail room of the Station Complement Squadron at the Third Base Air Depot, Langford Lodge, Northern Ireland.

As a member of the infantry unit, Sgt. Kooker took part in the Allied offensives in France and the western edge of Germany. He was wounded last November, and underwent treatment in a hospital before being assigned to the Air Forces.

Prior to entering the military services, he was employed by the Pennsylvania State Highway Department. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Kooker, live in Quakertown.
