Seabee Advances

Max Stauffer, who has been at Camp Peary, Va., since October 30, is home on a 10-day furlough. Before entering the service as a Seabee he was employed in the Cost Department of the Bethlehem Steel Company. Two weeks after leaving for the service a son was born and the baby will be baptized this evening at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Emilie Kissner, 701 North New Street, by the Rev. H. J. Croushore. His name is John Maxwell Stauffer and he is now two months old. Mr. and Mrs. Claude M. Stauffer of 640 Highland Avenue are his paternal grandparents. Seaman Stauffer, who will return to Camp Peary this week, received his second class seaman's rating recently.
