CRAIG FIELD, Selma, Ala.—The right to wear a pair of coveted "Silver Wings" and fly one of Uncle Sam's swift and deadly fighter planes against the Axis enemies has been won by Kenneth R. Kessler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Kessler, of Heights Rural Station, Easton, Pa., who was commissioned a second lieutenant this week at Craig Field, Selma, Ala.

The awarding of the wings and commission came after the new flying officer had completed his advanced flight training at the Fighter School in Selma.
