Brothers In Service Observe Birthdays

Sgt. Frank G. Krucli celebrated his birthday anniversary yesterday in the South Pacific. His brother, Pfc. Sigmund G. Krucli, will observe his birthday Monday "somewhere in France."

APR 9 1945
Sgt. Krucli entered the service in September, 1941 and was sent to the Panama Canal Zone for a year before he moved to the South Pacific. Holder of the Combat Infantryman Badge, he participated in the New Guinea, New Britain and New Caledonia campaigns. He received citations for his actions on the Philippines and on Luzon.

Pfc. Krucli entered the service in September of 1940. He was sent to Casablanca in 1942 and has taken part in the African, Tunisian and Italian campaigns. Pfc. Krucli holds the Purple Heart for wounds received in Tunisia, April 1, 1943, the Good Conduct Medal and the Bronze Star. He is stationed with the Military Police in France at present.
