

Harpel, James
Jack

STUDYING IN NEW YORK

Pfc. James Harpel, 176 Washington Avenue, Bethlehem, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Harpel of 176 Washington Avenue, has been made a Private First Class. He has finished basic training of two months at Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis, Mo., and is in the Army Air Force, studying at New York City Trade School to be an electrical engineer.

Harpel is one of a family of 10 boys and three girls, all living. Both mother and Dad are still living. His youngest brother, Jack, is now serving in Tampa, Fla.

April 21, 1943