3 Sons, Daughter
In Armed Services

Three sons and a daughter in the uniform of their country is the proud boast of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mesics, 832 Evans Street, Bethlehem. Two of the boys are in the Army, one is in the Navy, and the girl is a member of the WAC.

The latter is Helen, who enlisted in the women's corps in April. She attended Bethlehem High School and Business College. Another daughter lives at home.

The sons are Louis, a member of the Military Police; Charles, also in the Army, and William, now serving in the Navy.

The family belongs to St. Joseph's Catholic Church and the boys were employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.
