

Redline, Paul E.

DEC 20 1945 Six Valley Sailors On Pacific Destroyer

Pennsylvania sailors recently returned from Pacific duty aboard the destroyer tender USS Denebola are shown on the deck of their ship. They are, standing from left, Paul E. Redline, gunner's mate, third class, 23 West White St., Summit Hill; Bolek A. Sadowski, 34, ship's service man, first class, 205 Third Street, Bethlehem; Harold J. Scheetz, watertender, first class, 418 West Madison St., Easton; Warren C. Angstadt, motor machinist's mate, second class, 1044 Perry St., Reading; and C. J. Andruscavage, 229 West Mt. Vernon, Shenandoah. Front row from left, Edwin H. Brown, baker, third class, 1023 North Main St., Bethlehem; Paul S. Kachmer, boilermaker, third class, 535 North Front St., Allentown; Raymond Sigler, chief watertender, Allentown; Robert H. Moore, chief boilermaker, Pittsburgh, and Jere Heisler, radio technician, second class, 1348 Easton Ave., Bethlehem.

(Official U. S. Navy Photograph)

Dec. 20, 1945