

Kresge, John

Home On Furlough

Pfc. John Kresge is spending a 45-day furlough at the home of his parents, 1134 Spring Street. He entered the Coast Artillery on April 1, 1941. He was inducted at Fort Meade and trained at Fort Eustis and also served six months at Fort Hancock, N. J. In December, 1941, he sailed for the Hawaiian Islands where he has spent the past 39 months. Pfc. Kresge is a son of City Patrolman and Mrs. Alvin Kresge.

APR 4 1945

April 4, 1945