

Stoneback, Donald

7-28 Springtown 1942

Miss Rachael Ann Beatty was the guest of honor at a surprise bridal shower held on the lawn at the home of Mrs. Robert Seylar Saturday at 2 p. m. Miss Beatty received many beautiful gifts which were presented in a novel manner. Each was tied to the washline and Miss Beatty had to "take down the wash." Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Beatty, whose engagement to Sergeant Donald Stoneback, of the U. S. Army, was announced May 4, announced they would be married upon his graduation from officers' training school in September. Miss Beatty is employed in the offices of the Bethlehem Steel Company. The hostesses were Mrs. Milton Melchior and Mrs. Robert Seylar of Springtown, Mrs. Raymond Foelner of Weedlyn and Mrs. Montford Nicholas of Coffetown. The guests were Misses Arleen Miller, Cicily DeSilver, Harriet Frankenfield, Pearl Seifert, Virginia Gross, Mildred Walp, Mrs. Charles Melchior, Doris Lockard and Elsie Sobers, of Springtown; Misses Roberta Hoxworth and Mildred Freeh of Bursonville, Jean Foelner of Woodlyn, Misses Helen Drybola, Anna Fedarowitz, Ethel Campbell, Beatrice Solliday, Rose Pendrake, Helen Drybola, Alma Mease, Dorothy Sabersky, of Richlandtown; Miss Ruth Lauhoff of Newark, N. J., Mrs. Floyd Snyder of Stroudsburg, Miss Adele Hindenach of Easton R. D., Lois Ann Nicholas and Phyllis Mae Nicholas of Coffetown.
