

Gombert, Frank

Advances

NOV 26 1943

Frank Gombert, this city, has been promoted to boatswain in the United States Merchant Marine. It was announced today. At present he is confined to Broward General Hospital, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., having contracted malaria while on duty. He is an ex-service man and when rejected because of an injury received previously, he enlisted in the Merchant Marines to serve during World War II.

November 26, 1943