

Sadler, John A.

Lt. Sadler Assigned To Artillery School

Second Lt. John A. Sadler has arrived at the Field Artillery School, "home of the artillery," at Fort Sill, Okla., to attend the officer's basic course.

This is a radical departure from the usual practice of assigning U. S. Military Academy graduates to troop units and sending them to service schools after about two years of actual field service.

Lt. Sadler is the son of Col. and Mrs. P. L. Sadler, 915 Delaware Ave. Col. Sadler is the professor of military science and tactics at Lehigh University.
