

Lock Sr., Alfred V.

Gets Second Stripe

DEC 21 1944

The promotion of Pfc. Alfred V. Lock Sr., to the grade of corporal was announced recently "somewhere in England" by the commanding general of the American Air Force.

His mother, Mrs. Anna Lock, resides at 624 High Street, Bangor. Prior to entering the service, he was employed as an automobile mechanic.

Cpl. Lock is a member of the service group attached to the 56th Fighter Group, highest-scoring P-47

Thunderbolt outfit in the Eighth Air Force. He is assigned as chauffeur for the commanding officer of the service group.

December 21, 1944