

Nagy, Alfred B.

PARTY FOR GRADUATE TO LEAVE SOON FOR SERVICE

Alfred Nagy Completes Work at Moravian—To Enter N. O. R. C.

Alfred B. Nagy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Nagy, of 334 East Broad Street, this city, was tendered an informal party and reception by his parents at their home, Saturday evening, on the double occasion of his graduation from Moravian College for Men, and his coming departure for training in the Naval Officers' Reserve Corps.

Present at the party were the Misses Vida Mead, Madeline Sakaly, Margaret Lutz, Janet Outen, June Bright, Marie Hekimiam, Barbara Dalton, Virginia Schilling, Dorothy Acker, Elinor Corderoy and Marion Kincaid.

Also Charles M'esse, Harlan Fulmer, Edwin Youngblood, James Clark, Jr., Kenneth Almy, Charles Yodice, William Linge, Herbin Schwab, Burton Kelchner and Alfred Nagy.

House guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nagy were Mrs. Stephen Sakaly, Miss Madeline Sakaly, of Morrisville, and Miss Vida DuRand Mead, of West Orange, N. J. 25 1943

January 25, 1943