

Kovacs, Frank

Gets Purple Heart

Private First Class Frank Kovacs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kovacs, 1033 Mechanic Street, who was wounded in action November 13, 1944, has been awarded the Purple Heart and is recuperating in a hospital somewhere in France, according to information received by his parents.

Pfc. Kovacs received his Infantry training before going overseas in May 1944. He entered the service in January 1941.

January 10, 1945