

Kastana, Mildred (Rinkunas)

Miss Rinkunas, WAVE, Wed to Richard Barton

MAR 20 1944

Yeoman second class Mildred Kastana, of the WAVES, foster daughter of Stanley Rinkunas and the late Mrs. Selma Rinkunas of 1251 Mechanic Street, became the bride of Richard E. Barton, Chief Quartermaster, son of Lieutenant and Mrs. George E. Barton, of Key West, Fla., March 11 in the Holy Infancy Catholic Church. The Rev. Philip A. McArdle officiated.

Mrs. Stanley Rinkunas Jr., the bride's sister-in-law, was matron of honor.

Mr. Rinkunas Jr., foster brother of the bride, was best man.

A reception took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kricks, 445 Adams Street.

The bride attended Bethlehem High School and was graduated from Bethlehem Business College. She is now on the Staff of the Personnel office of the Naval Operating Base in Key West, Fla.

Chief Barton attended schools in Charleston and attended the College of Charleston, Charleston, S. C. He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa fraternity. At present, he is attached to the Hydrographic office, Lido Beach, L. I., New York.

March 20, 1944