

Mayor's Community Advisory Board meets tonight

The Bethlehem Gadfly George Floyd killing, Uncategorized July 13, 2020

 Latest in a series of posts responding to the George Floyd killing

Town Hall, 6pm

About 25 members — socially distanced that will about fill the Rotunda.

(Who aren't members? Doesn't look like any of the young people who organized demonstrations or who spoke at Council Tuesday and are part of activist organizations.)

No notice to the general public by the City as far as Gadfly can see.

I guess we're not invited.

Nor is there any indication of video.

No matter.

Nothing much of interest on the agenda.

Only a presentation on Police Reform by the Police Department.

Wouldn't miss Jeopardy for that.

But hope the press is there.

Christina and Sara, depending on you.
