

Goldschmied, Fabio R.

TWENTY-EIGHT JOIN ARMY FROM HERE

Six Are Rejected—Two Are from This

City, Nov 23 1942

Twenty-eight of thirty-four men sent by Bethlehem Selective Service Board No. 3 to the Allentown Induction Center Saturday were accepted for United States Army duty. In addition the board was credited with eight enlistments.

Two of the inductees went immediately to Fort George G. Meade, Md. They were Fabio R. Goldschmied, 226 East 27th Street, New York City, and Malcolm H. Baxter, 343 West Fourth Street.

The others are spending a fourteen day furlough before departing for reception centers on December 12. They are as follows:

Harry L. Dillinger, Jr., 413 West Broad Street; Ernest A. Rothrock, 1918 West Broad Street; John E. Kehoe, 712 Seventh Avenue; Joseph F. Magyar, 633 Contestoga Street; Samuel Lonstein, 1739 North Sixth Street, Harrisburg; Wilfred C. Stair, Jr., 416 Grandview Street; Richard E. Hoffman, 529 Spring Street; Patrick McArdle, 537 Third Avenue; Andrew W. Brandon, 574 Vineyard Street.

Michael Kolaric, 420 Lehigh Street; Peter Sedler, 216 Seventh Avenue; Harry A. Zundel, 702 Spring Street; John Kieffer, 246 Eighth Avenue; Robert R. Bellesfield, 1828 Eaton Avenue; John W. Conrad, 825 Spring Street; Eugene L. Boyle, 219 Prospect Avenue; Steve C. Gasdaska,

Nov 23, 1942