

Herber, Harlan

Pfc. Harlan Herber
Out of Army DEC 6 1945

Pfc. Harlan Herber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Herber, 50 West Elizabeth Avenue, was discharged from the service at Indiantown Gap November 24.

Herber, a member of the 7th Infantry Regiment, 3rd Division, had served overseas 21 months taking part in the Anzio and Central Europe campaigns. He was taken prisoner at Anzio and held 16 months before his liberation.

He intends to resume his studies at Clemson College, S. C., interrupted when he entered the service. He was a mechanical engineer student.

December 6, 1945