Grace P. Banik Becomes Bride of Army Sergeant

AUG 21 1943

Miss Grace Pauline Banik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Banik, 1813 East Fifth Street, and Technical Sergeant Julius George Ozdinec, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ozdinec, 1503 East Sixth Street, were married this afternoon at 4 o'clock in St. John's Slovak Lutheran Church. The Rev. John Daniel officiated.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and lace, tulle veil caught by a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white bridal roses and baby's breath. Her maid of honor, Miss Helen Banik, a sister, wore a gown of shell pink with bodice of transparent velvet and full skirt of tulle, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Paul Gloner Jr., of this city, served as best man.

Miss Elsie Surovi, organist, played the traditional wedding marches. The church and altar was attractively decorated with white gladioli.

A reception was held at the home of the bride, which was decorated with white roses and gladioli. The couple left for Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., and Canada, on their wedding trip.

The bride, who is organist at St. John's Slovak Church, is an employe of Rofler-Smith Company. The bridegroom was formerly employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company and at present is a technical sergeant in the army, stationed at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.
