

Macsi Jr., Gabor

ENTER ARMED FORCES

Gabor Macsi Jr., 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gabor Macsi, 1632 East Tenth Street, Bethlehem, and his friend, Michael Walczel, also 18, son of Mrs. Anna Walczel, 928 East Mechanic Street, are now wearing the uniform of Uncle Sam's armed forces.

Macsi left last Tuesday for service with the U. S. Marines and is at present taking "boot training" at Parris Island, S. C. He is a member of Zion Hungarian Reformed

Church, attended Washington Junior High and was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company in the Central Tool Department.

Walczel will depart next Tuesday for New Cumberland, Pa., induction center, where he will be assigned to an Army post. He will be a "special duty" man. He is a member of St. John Capistrano Catholic Church and attended Technical High School. He had been employed in the Navy Building laboratory at the Bethlehem Steel plant.

MAY 1 1943

May 1, 1943