MARTIAL FUNERAL FOR DEAD NAVY MAN

9-4 — 1942
Mitchell Boyer, Gas Poison Victim, to Be Buried in Arlington National Cemetery.

Remains of Mitchell Boyer, 35, chief petty officer of the fire command, United States Navy, will be shipped to this city and will lie in state at the Steyers Home, 70 East Broad Street, Sunday evening. Services and burial with full military honors will take place at Arlington Memorial Cemetery, Arlington, Va., Monday morning.

Chief Petty Officer Boyer, whose death by gas poisoning was reported to relatives here last night, was a nephew of Mrs. A. T. Manley, Mrs. William R. Deetz, Mrs. Margaret Percher, all of this city, and Mrs. W. J. Steffins, Somerville, N. J. He was the son of the late Albert and Ida Shafer Boyer, of Bethlehem.

News of the sailor's death was sent through the Pennsylvania Motor Police and the Bethlehem City Police, directed to his mother, who has been dead two years. Motor Officer Wallace Frey located one of the aunts, Mrs. Manley, 1422 West Market Street, who made arrangements for the obsequies.

Mr Boyer enlisted in the United States Navy in 1927 and was completing fifteen years of service. He had just finished a course at the War College, Washington, D. C. Details as to how or when he met his death were not learned today as relatives went to the morgue in Jamaica, Long Island, to claim the body.
