

Schranz, William M.H.

Hellertown Youth Transferred To Texas

DEC 20 1943

Naval Aviation Cadet William Mark Henry Schrantz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Schrantz, 844 Juniper Road, Hellertown, has been transferred to the Naval Air Training Center at Corpus Christi, Texas, after successful completion of the primary flight training course at the Naval Air Station, Glenview, Ill.

After passing the advanced flight training course at Corpus Christi, Cadet Schrantz will pin on his wings as a Naval Aviator and be commissioned as an Ensign in the Naval Reserve or a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve.

Schrantz is a graduate of the Hellertown High School and attended Oak Bridge Military Institute, Oak Bridge, N. C., and Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, Va. He began his Naval Aviation career at the Navy's Pre-Flight School at the University of Georgia, Athens, Ga.
