

Bonney, Fredric I.

" , Sherwood M.

Pen Argyl Soldier FEB 13
Now Staff Sergeant

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC—Fredric J. Bonney, son of Mrs. Ada P. Bonney, 33 East Main Street, Pen Argyl, Pa., has been promoted to staff sergeant at headquarters of the Far East Air Service Command in the Netherlands East Indies. He is an administrative specialist in the operations and training division of the organization which moves supplies to air force units throughout the theater and services and repairs combat and transport aircraft.

S/Sgt. Bonney is a graduate of Pen Argyl High School and of Churchmen's Business College at Easton, Pa. He worked in the sales division of C. K. Williams and Company at Easton before being inducted in April, 1942. He has been overseas since August, 1942 serving in Australia more than two years before moving to the Netherlands East Indies.

He is entitled to wear the Good Conduct Medal and the Asiatic-Pacific Ribbon with bronze star for the New Guinea campaign. A brother, Lieut. Sherwood M. Bonney, is in the Navy.

Feb 13, 1945