

Curry, Richard
Francis

SOLDIER'S BIRTHDAY TUESDAY

Sergeant Richard Curry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Curry, 1105 Russell Avenue, will celebrate his 24th birthday anniversary Tuesday, August 10. He is a member of Co. A, 32nd Medical Battalion stationed at the Carlisle Medical School, Carlisle, Pa. He was inducted into the service on May 7, 1941. His brother, Francis, is also in the service. He enlisted February 28, 1941, and after receiving his basic signal corps training at Fort Monmouth, N. J., took part in large scale maneuvers in the south, after which he was stationed at Camp Claiborne, La., and from there he was transferred to California from where he embarked on June 1, 1942 to a South Pacific island.

August 7, 1943