

Smith, James J.

Naval Graduate

Ensign James Leslie Smith (above), of 1762 West Union Boulevard, Bethlehem, was graduated from the Communications School of the U. S. N. R. at Harvard University on Tuesday with a class of more than 250. With Mrs. Smith, who has been residing with him in Cambridge, Mass., for the past two months, he returned to Bethlehem last evening on a 10-day leave before his assignment.

Ensign Smith completed a five-months course. He received his commission November, 1942. He is a graduate of Penn State College and before entering the Naval Reserve was in the employ of the Prudential Insurance Company in this city. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton B. Smith, of Birdsboro, Pa. Mrs. Smith is the former Dorothy Hagy, of Allentown.

April 29, 1943