Bethlehem Women At WAVE'S School

Two Bethlehem women, members of the U. S. Naval Women's Reserve, were enrolled recently at the Naval Training School on the campus of Indiana University at Bloomington, Ind., where they are undergoing an intensive 12-week course preparing to release shore-based sailor storekeepers for active sea duty.

Eligibility for an advanced petty officer rating and assignment to active duty at some naval shore station within the continental limits of the United States await the feminine Bluejackets upon their graduation from the storekeeper training school.

They are: Piroška Irene Biro, 28, daughter of Mrs. Gizella Biro, 702 East Third Street, and Edith Estella Förker, 24, wife of Charles Walter Förker, of 801 Main Street.
